ASTORIA, OREGON:

WEDNESDAY FEBRUARY 21, 18-3

What Johnny Wanted

"Which of you children can tell me who was the meckest man?" usked an Austin Sunday school teacher, of her class. None of them raised their hands to indicate that they were in possession of the Biblical lore. Finally little Johnny Fizzletop raised his hand above his curly head.

"There!" said the teacher, angrily glaring at the rest of the class, "you ought to be ashamed of yourselves. You great big boys have been coming to Sunday school for months and months, and yet you don't know any more than you did when you first came, and here is little Johnny Fizzletop, poor little fellow, be never had any advantages, and has only been coming to Sunday school for the past two weeks, and yet he knows more about the Bible than all the rest of you. I become perfectly discouraged when I think of it. I come here every Sunday, and slave and toil, trying to get something into your empty heads while you sit there with your mouths open, like a lot of fools, and don't know what to say when I ask you such a question as what is the name of the meekest man in the Bible. Just look at little Johnny there, holding up his hand, while the rest of you hang your heads. Speak up, Johnny."

"Please, ma'am, may I go out?"

The O. R. & N. Co's tunnel through the Burnt river pass is completed for a distance of 250 feet, with as much more work yet to be done. Day and night shifts are being utilized to press the work to completion.

Mr. R. C. Moore, of the house of Messrs. Vernam & Co., 34 New WINES, . street, New York, says that he was almost instantly relieved of severe pain, consequent upon an attack of pleurisy, by one application of St. Jacobs Oil.
