The Oldest American Town.

A special building will be dedi- agitation." cated to the antiquities. Another building will contain an exposition of the mineral and agricultural wealth of the territory. New Mexico's mineral exhibit was the most creditable one at the recent Denver exposition. The occasion will be made attractive, and the contrast between the primitive aspect of an ancient people and the goaheaditiveness of the Anglo-Saxon nineteenth-century civilization cannot fail to be interesting.

THE Mahdi, or False Prophet of the Soudan who has captured Cairo, and is making it otherwise uffpleasant for the Khedive, is described as one Mohamed Ahmed, a Dongolian. He is illiterate, but has studied religion, has been ordained a sheik, and has gained a reputation for sanctity by playing the harmit. He has increased his influence by marrying numerous protected list, the Washington wives among the wealthy families, Post thinks it is only necessary to keeping within the prescribed put a tax on water in order to number of four by a resort, when crush the washing industry out of necessary, to divorce. In May, existence. 1881, he openly proclaimed himself to be the prophet forefold by Mohammed, preaching universal equality of law and religion, with community of goods to all believers, and death to all who rejected him. Like most prophets, loss. he was denounced by his own townsmen, who proclaimed him mad. In appearance be is tall and slim, and wears a black beard. He reads and writes with difficulty, is head of a local order of dervishes, and has shown much tact Saturday Feb. 24, 10:30 A. M. in uniting the discordant tribes. The number of tribesmen who follow him is estimated at about Ship's Gear, 238,000 souls.
