It will be remembered that some months ago there was a semiofficial statement going the rounds of the Northwestern press to the effect (1) that a Minneapolis grain syndicate has leased the privilege to establish elevators and grain depots along the whole N. P. line; (2d) that Mr. Villard stated the opinion that grain from Walla Walla could be transported to Minneapolis for 40 cts. per bushel; and (3d) the people of Walla Walla and Puget Sound were promised from the same source, that the freight rate from Walla Walla west, should be alike to Portland and all intermediate points to Seattle, as the shipcharges.
