

The Daily Astorian

ASTORIA, OREGON:

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1883

The barkentine Portland crossed out yesterday afternoon.

The bell tower is to be moved—probably in the rear of the city hall.

As the city begins to fill up for the summer, help and houses grow scarce.

D. P. Thompson and R. J. Reeves are establishing a national bank at Baker City.

J. W. Watts loses his position as receiver of the Oregon City land office. Mr. Pillsbury succeeds him.

The funeral of Andrew Seim who was drowned last Wednesday night, will be at two o'clock this afternoon.

Eastern Oregon stock men have had to pay out $100 a day in some instances for feed during the recent cold snap.

The suit of Jas. Turk against the Oregonian, for $25,000 for alleged libel resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

Chas. Moffit has purchased an interest in the business of B. F. Stevens & Co., C. T. Brown retiring from the firm.

The Columbia is due from San Francisco this morning with 154 cabin passengers aboard; Gov. Newell, of Washington Territory, among the number.

The parties who recently were awarded the contract for building the bridge across the Columbia at Kalama are about to build a large sawmill at Cathlamet.

Work began on the Kalama extension of the N. P. R. R. Tuesday, near Columbia City. A gang of 40 Chinamen were put to clearing the track for grading.

The Salem Flouring Mills Co. has bought the farmers' warehouse at Independence and contemplate doing a large storage business there for the use of their mills at Salem and Oregon City.

Y. M. C. A. annual meeting. Election of officers for the ensuing year, this Friday evening at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

CARL A. HANSON, Secretary.

The foreign exports for January from the Columbia were 294,878 bus. wheat, and 56,257 bbls flour, aggregating in value $563,486. February's exports were 160,906 bus. wheat, and 29,490 bbls flour, worth $323,691.

In the police court yesterday, counsel in the case of Geo. Hill, charged with violation of section 4 of ordinance No. 370, asked for an extension of time in which to plead, which was granted, till to-day at the same hour and place.

Work at the gas works goes on well. The tanks and reservoirs and other outfitings are being placed, and pipe is being laid down Main street. The workmen engaged in digging out a trench along the west side of said thoroughfare, expose some curious formation, just under the surface there being a deposit of trunks of trees curiously arranged in parallel rows, and constituting a solid road bed through which the sappers and miners with difficulty hewed their way.

Three steamers came up stream from below yesterday morning at ten o'clock. The first was the Walls Walls, loaded deep with a large cargo of coal from the Sound and floating along in silent majesty, her momentum carrying her up past the docks to her landing place; next came the government cutter Corwin, a trim little vessel, whisking merrily along, just from Coos bay and in here on temporary service, and in the rear was the steamer Sam, bound in from Skipanon and as noisy and saucy as her youthful namesake.

Meteorological Register.

The following is an extract from the meteorological register of Fort Canby, W. T., for the month of February, 1883:

Average temperature, 39.00. Maximum temperature, 66.00, the 26th of February.

Minimum temperature, 14.00, during night, from 4th to 5th. of February.

Average cloudiness, 53. Number of days on which rain, hail and snow fell, 11.

Rain, hail and snowfall 6 in., 33 c. c. The month (February) has shown the lowest temperature since the night of January 13th to 14th, 1875, when the thermometer stood at 4 degrees.

WILLIAM S. BLOOR.

The Corwin.

The U. S. revenue cutter Corwin, Capt. Healey, commander, arrived in yesterday from San Francisco and Empire City, at which last place was begun an investigation into the loss of the collier Tacoma, on the 20th of last January. The investigation will be concluded here. John Bergman, of this place, who distinguished himself in saving life at the scene of the wreck, and Wm. Kyle, who was also there, will appear before Major Blakeney, inspector of the life saving service of this coast and give their testimony, upon the conclusion of which the vessel will return to San Francisco.

The Corwin is a trim little craft, and is the best built of her class on the coast. She is always given a hearty greeting in Astoria, as we look upon her as belonging here. The Richard Rush, at San Francisco, the Oliver Wolcott on the Sound, and the Corwin at Astoria, is the suppositional distribution, but the fact that the last named is the staunchest and most suitable vessel that the government can send on Arctic voyages has always caused her to be detained for such service. She will return to San Francisco on Sunday.

The Old Engine.

The old hand engine that did good duty in days of yore, but which has for so these many years reposed in glorious ease beneath the moss-grown roof of the building adjoining the city hall was yesterday brought out and put through its motions. Like an old race horse, its movements were at first a little jerky, but as the boys who manned the brakes bore down, the "masheen" warmed to its work and sent a solid stream that showed there was plenty of service in the old veteran yet. Some time ago the city council passed an ordinance to the effect that when a new company was organized in the eastern end of the city the engine in question with suitable hose should be placed in their charge. We believe steps are being taken looking to the organization of such company, and as soon as perfected, the machine will be turned over to them. It is the intention of the new company to place the engine in the vicinity of the West Coast Packing company's building.

At the request of many patrons I will have Ice cream, Sunday, the 4th inst. FRANK FABRE.

TRUTH IS RIGHT.

When Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Ladies Are the Best Judges

On all matters connected with the toilet. They have decided that SOZODONT is what they will have. "When a woman will, she will, you may depend on it; and when she won't, she won't, and there's an end out!" This accounts for the popularity of SOZODONT.

Its Wonderful Efficacy.

No remedy ever discovered possesses the wonderful efficacy of Syrup of Figs. The certainty with which it expels all impurities from the system, at the same time giving tone to the liver, stomach and bowels, places it ahead of all other remedies, to say nothing of its being more easily taken. It is selling very rapidly. W. Dement & Co. agents for Astoria.
