ASTORIA, OREGON:

FRIDAY.....MARCH 16, 1883

The "Guyascutus" Man.

Joe Meek, the old Webfoot pioneer, was about six feet one inch high, and splendidly proportioned. He was the first white man that ever crossed the Rocky mountains in the winter. He did that in 1847, when he carried the news of the Cayuse outbreak in Oregon and the Whitman massacre overland to Washington Meek was the originator of the "Guyascutus." His friends at the trading-posts in Missouri used to joke with him a good deal when he came in with his load of furs, and Joe resolved to get even with them. So, next time he came in, he told a wonderful story of a strange, fierce animal, half grizzly, half human, but he would let nobody see it until a certain day, when he proposed to hold a public exhibition. He rented an old log church for the purpose, and when the time came it was filled with people at two bits a head. Joe had a curtain fixed up, behind which the audience could hear a great growling and rattling of chains, and his first performance was to open all the doors and windows, telling the people that the guyascutus was such a strong and terrible beast he could not guarantee that its chains would hold it. therefore he thought it best to provide for their escape at any time. This done he went behind the curtain, smeared his face and dabbled his hair with blood, which he had ready in a bucket, while his assistant began a furious growling and howling. Suddenly Joe flew out from behind the curtain, the very picture of fright, and shouted, "Save yourselves! The Guyascutus has broken loose." Of course they lost no time in getting out, nor did Joe in leaving the locality.

A sure cure for impoverished blood, pimples, and sallow complection, is Brown's Iron Bitters. It will produce a healthy color, smooth skin, and is absolutely not injurious.

—That Hacking Cough can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure. We guarantee it. Sold by W. E. Dement.

SECRET!

THE ONLY DISSOLVER OF THE POISONOUS URIC ACID WHICH EXISTS IN THE BLOOD OF RHEUMATIC AND GOUTY PATIENTS.

SALICYLICA is known as a commonsense remedy, because it strikes directly at the cause of Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia, while so many so-called specifics and supposed panaceas only treat locally the effects.

It has been conceded by eminent scientists that outward applications, such as rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, and soothing lotions will not eradicate these diseases which are the result of the poisoning of the blood with Uric Acid

SALICYLICA works with marvelous effect on this acid and so removes the disorder. It is now exclusively used by all celebrated physicians of America and Europe. Highest Medical Academy of Paris reports 95 per cent cures in three days.
