

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1883

The Railroad.

At Jewell, Clatsop county, Oregon, on Tuesday March 13th, Katie, youngest daughter of W. J. and Annie Denver, aged one year four months and thirteen days.

THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT has decided upon the entire separation between church and state and hereafter no national appropriation will be made for the maintenance of any religious establishment.

It is said that fifty years ago shad were so plentiful in the Savannah river that fishermen exchanged them for corn at the rate of one ear of corn for one shad.

A Captious Sheet.

THERE is told a funny story concerning a new arrival who being pressed to vote a few days after landing at New York, declared his politics in this wise: "Have you a government here?" "Yes." "Well, then, I'm against it." We are reminded of that historical antagonist of freedom by daily perusal of the New York Sun.
