Ireland's Patron Saint

St. Patrick, the apostle of Ireland, the son of a priest in North Britain, was stolen by pirates and carried to Ireland at the age of sixteen, where he was sold as a slave and endured many hardships for six years. At the end of that time he found a piece of gold while plowing in a field and with it he purchased his freedom. He hastened home to his parents, who were overjoyed at seeing him. But his stay in a strange land had inspired him with profound pity for the poor people without the gospel; and urged by an inward voice and further inspired by a dream, in which he saw a man in Ireland beseeching him to come and dwell among them, he left home and went to France, where he entered upon his preparation for holy orders. After he was ordained the pope appointed him bishop of Ireland. He set out for that place at once. He traveled through the entire country and was received everywhere with delight. One day, however, while preaching to them of the doctrine of the Trinity, they failed to follow his meaning and demanded explanation. He paused for a moment absorbed in thought, and then stooping down he placked a leaf of shamrock and holding it up before them, bid them behold an emblem of the three in onethe illustrations of his words. The simple teaching delighted the people, and from that time the shamrock became the national flower.

We have witnessed the magical effect of St. Jacobs Oil in the most severe cases of rheumatism, and without hesitancy, pronounce it the greatest remedy in the market. The Cincinnati Enquirer mentions the following statement from Mr. Burton, of the great stove firm of Redway & Burton that city. "My boy was afflicted with rheumatism badly; we had doctored him a great deal, but could find no cure; I saw St. Jacobs Oil advertised so much, heard so much of its good qualities, that I at last determined to try it. I must say that it beats all my doctoring hollow. Two bottles of St. Jacobs Oil cured my boy of the rheumatism when all other remedies which I had tried failed."

For the great OREGON BLOOD PURIFIER has cared me of my so much Quinine habit and general debility, I have suffered so long. Yourstruly, WM. ARLINGTON, STRONG FACTS!

A great many people are asking what particular troubles BROWN's IRON BITTERS is good for.

It will cure Heart Disease, Paralysis, Dropsy, Kidney Disease, Consumption, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and all similar diseases.

Its wonderful curative power is simply because it purifies and enriches the blood, thus beginning at the foundation, and by building up the system, drives out all disease.

A Lady Cured of Rheumatism.

Baltimore, Md., May 7, 1830.
My health was much shartered by Rheumatism when I commenced taking Brown's Iron Bitters, and I scarcely had strength enough to attend to my daily household duties. I am now using the third bottle and I am regaining strength daily, and I cheerfully recommend it to all. I cannot say too much in praise of it. Mrs. Mary E. Brassman, 173 Prestmanst.

Kidney Disease Cured. Christiansburg, Va., 1851.

Suffering from kidney disease, from which I could get no relief, I tried Brown's Iron Bitten, which cured me completely. A child of mine, recovering from script fever, had no appetite and did not seem to be able to eat at all. I gave him Iron Bitters, with the happiest results.

Heart Disease.

Vine St., Harrisburg, Pa. Dec. 2, 1881. After trying different physicians and many remedies for palpitation of the heart without receiving any benefit, I was advised to try Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used two hottles and never found anything that gave me so much relief.

Mrs. JENNIE HESS.

irs with the happiest results.

J. KYLE MONTAGUE.

For the peculiar troubles to which ladies are subject, Brown's Inon BITTERS is invaluable. Try it.

Be sure and get the Genuine.
