

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 1883

—H. W. Bloom of the Oregonian is in the city.

—The Clatsop Milling Co., advertise the fact that they are in business.

—The Melancthon is finishing unloading at Thomas & Knowles cannery.

—We are informed that a family named Bullard, on the Willapa, are afflicted with the smallpox.

—We notice in our rounds that Capt. B. F. Packard is once more behind the counter at Van Dusen's.

—Mr. Hollburg, assistant light keeper at the cape has resigned; it is thought Brenner, of the life crew will succeed him.

—The seats for the Occidental arrived on yesterday's steamer. There will be no skating this evening, as the chairs are to be put up.

—Major Blakeney arrived here yesterday on the Queen. He paid off the life crew at the cape, which closes it's work for the inactive season.

—Business men report times moderately good, with prospects for improvement. Money will be plentier toward the middle of the month.

—Regular communication of Temple Lodge No. 7, F. and A. M., at Masonic Hall this evening. Sojourning Masons in good standing invited to attend.

—A shower of lizards at Pickhandle gulch, near Candelaria, Nevada, on the 20th ult., astonished the inhabitants almost as much as that shower of worms last Friday astonished early rising Astorians.

—Frank N. Getchell, who was superintendent of the cooking department at Humes cannery last season, leaves this morning for Parkersburg, Coos Co., to take charge of the Coquille cannery at that place.

—Part of Hallet's grand army of construction has reached Portland and have already paralyzed the urban dwellers by their facility for making out-door life vociferous. If there was a paper at Columbia City this summer the criminal column would be well filled.

—The new arrangement in reference to the arrival and departure of ocean steamships to and from this port went into effect yesterday; the Queen of the Pacific arrived in to-day the Columbia goes out. The dates for this month and May will be found in another column.

—We have received a copy of the Sunday edition of the Brooklyn Eagle, which whoops about its wonderful size and enterprise. We see nothing wonderful in it. The San Francisco Sunday Chronicle is a better paper every week, and San Francisco hasn't half the people that Brooklyn has. The papers published on this coast exhibit more enterprise right straight along, and are better patronized than in any other part of the globe.

—Yesterday morning salmon fishing on the Columbia for the season of 83 began, and seldom has there been better results for the first haul than that exhibited by the fishermen. Twenty and twenty-five to a boat was not uncommon, and several caught twice that number. The highest we heard of authentically was the score of Peter Johns of the Columbia Cannery company, who came rolling in on the morning tide with eighty-five of the prettiest salmon that ever flopped a farewell fin to the foaming ocean.

—The Grocers' Gazette, London, in its issue of March 10th, says of the salmon market: Several parcels of late importation Frazer and Skeena river fish have been disposed of, holders having shown more disposition to meet the views of buyers, and considering the satisfactory quality of recent arrivals, there is a fair prospect of the whole catch going into consumption at the present prices, provided the quality of later shipments turn out as good as the present. Prices for Columbia river are maintained, without anything of note passing.

—A little past 10 o'clock yesterday morning says the Standard, as the Lurline was coming up to the Morrison street dock she collided with the Westport, which was lying at the dock, and crushed one of the latter's side wheels. Both the Fleetwood and the Westport were lying at the dock at the time, and the Fleetwood swung out into the stream to allow the Lurline to land between them, when by some means the Lurline's bow veered round and struck the Westport. As the Westport's guards were down, there was nothing to save the wheel. While the Lurline was passing the railroad ferry a few minutes before, she was signaled to pass astern, but, for some reason, failed to respond or take notice, and passed directly in front, escaping a collision by only a few feet. The Westport arrived down all right yesterday afternoon.

—The Box Sheet for the Kentucky Jubilee Minstrels will be open this morning at 10 o'clock, at Strauss' New York Novelty Store. Secure seats at once.

California Crops.

The situation as regards crop prospects in California, is thus described by the Monterey Democrat: "It is a comfort to know should the worst come, and the season turn out absolutely dry, that there will be in this state no famine prices for food supplies. There is fully a year's stock of wheat on hand, and were there not, it is easy to replenish it from the wheat fields of the northwestern states. Of barley it is estimated there is enough to last through next seeding season. It is also true that the state is in better condition to endure the extremity of a dry season than in any previous year. As to forage for animals the outlook is not so consoling. It is now certain that the wild grasses are short, and there would be difficulty about water. Of course hay can be imported. A very little rain, however, would suffice to put the grain crops in condition to be cut for hay. We can stand a drouth, without positive suffering, its most disagreeable feature being the forced inaction to which it would reduce most of our population."

Serious Accident.

Last Saturday evening N. W. Overton, who was employed at Rosa's logging camp above Knappa, was cleaning his rifle intending to start out hunting the following morning, and while bending over it threw the chamber free, one of the cartridges in some mysterious way exploded. The charge went straight on, but the powder blew up in his face seriously burning him and injuring his eyes. He was brought to the city yesterday for medical treatment.

—Columbia river salmon sells for $1.62½ a case in St. Louis, Mo.

—Jos. Hume, president of the Knappa Packing company, gives notice to outside fishermen which will be read with considerable interest.

—The Ona was in Bakers bay yesterday, and the Kate & Anna was out swinging toward Tillamook. The Mississippi went to sea at 6:45 Sunday morning.

—The Chinese don't propose to be outdone by the Mexican man, and are building a new theater opposite Liberty Hall. Property in the vicinity will undoubtedly advance in value.

—Mr. Isaac Bergman yesterday received the sad intelligence of the death of his mother, Mrs. Hyman Bergman. The deceased lady was a resident of Nuremberg, Germany, and was in the 69th year of her age.

—The authorities of Corvallis have passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale of target-guns, air-guns, or firearms of any kind to minors under 16 and make it a misdemeanor for any minor to be found with any weapons in his possession.

—The Melbourne Journal of Commerce of late date says: In American salmon there has been a good inquiry, about 450 cases having been taken up at 9s 6d to 9s 9d for the best brands, outside brands at auction being run off at about 8s 6d.

—Thirty-pound salmon were plenty in the markets yesterday and found ready purchase. No finer flavored fish swims than the Columbia river salmon. Sturgeon is also offered for sale but though fair to look upon and juicy on the iron, it hath not that delicious savor possessed by the toothsome samlet.

—Ever since salmon began to be shipped from the Columbia, Wm. Hume, of Eagle Cliff, the pioneer in the business, has always had the honor of shipping the first pack of the season. It has got to be a regular thing, and in accordance with his usual custom he sends out on the Columbia this morning a choice 120 cases, the first of the pack of '83.

—From the San Francisco Chronicle of the 31st ult., we learn that William Depeyster Stag died at New York on Wednesday in his nineteenth year. In 1811, Stag went with others, in the employ of John Jacob Astor, on a voyage to the Pacific coast in search of furs, and was detained there by British cruisers during the year 1812. He was one of the party which founded this city, and at the time of his death William must have been pretty well stricken in years.

—Fishermen's Boatloads by the hundreds, low down, at Carl Adler's. Special reduction to cannerymen.

—Boston brown bread, New York cream pies, Astoria jelly pies, and all kinds of cake, too numerous to mention, at F. B. Elbertson's Seaside Bakery today. Prepare for Sunday dinner.

—Cannerymen will do well to examine Carl Adler's full stock of books and stationery. Everything you need you will find there at lowest prices.

—Physicians' prescriptions carefully compounded day or night at J. W. Conn's drug store, opposite Occident Hotel.

—Two splendid front rooms, suitable for gentlemen only, or for office use. Apply to Alex. Campbell at Gen Saloon.

—P. J. Goodman, on Chenamus street has just received the latest and most fashionable style of gents and ladies boots, shoes, etc. Agent in Astoria for the famous Morrow shoes.

—Cold boiled ham, brown bread and Boston baked beans at "Jeff's" Variety Chop House every night, near Stephens Theatre—sign of the red and green light. Open all night.

—Furnished rooms to rent at Mrs. P. J. Goodman's, corner Concomly and Madison streets.

Wiggins' Great Storm.

It seems as though the great storm predicted by Wiggins, is going to strike Astoria. During the last week, at least seventeen young, good-looking, marriageable men have been at A. M. Johnson's Crockery Store, inspecting their stock and pricing crockery, with a view of getting ready for housekeeping. If a storm is not in transit towards Astoria, a squall is, at least, and the young ladies had better be prepared for it. If they will call at our store during the week, our gentlemanly clerk will take pleasure in showing them the nice sets of dishes, etc., that their young men have already picked out. Of course we don't want you to give us away, as we have promised the young men not to let you into the secret; but of course you will want to see what kind of crockery you are going to use, and as it is all here we would like to have you inspect it. Seventeen honeymoons are going to be crowded into this year it seems. How they are going to do it is a question, but they'll do it no doubt.

A. M. JOHNSON & Co.'s Great Crockery Store.

Success.
The sale of Syrup of Fig is simply immense. Everyone is taking it, and all admit that it is the best medicine ever used. Children cry for it on account of its pleasant taste, and grown up people who have used it once never take anything else. Unlike other remedies for biliousness and constipation it never loses its power to act, and it always leaves the organs on which it acts stronger than before. Besides one feels fresh and bright and realizes that it is Nature's own true laxative. W. E. Dement & Co. are agents for Astoria. Hodge, Davis & Co., Wholesale Agents, Portland, Oregon.
