

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

FRIDAY... APRIL 6, 1883
-T. S. Jewett gives notice concerning internal revenue licenses.
-The land grant of the O. & C. R. R. Co., extends to the California line.

The Occidental.

Last evening Occidental hall was thrown open for the first time, and despite the fact that the delay in procuring seats and scenery occasioned a good deal of trouble yet the auditorium presented a creditable appearance.

Plenty of Room.

On the last steamer came the usual installment of inquiring letters from people living in the eastern and Mississippi valley states, but who contemplate coming out here.

Death of a Pioneer.

A Victoria B. C. dispatch says John Muir, one of the earliest pioneers of that country, died on the 3rd inst., at Sooke. He went there in 1819, and for many years was an employe of the Hudson Bay company.

New Arrangement.

We are authentically informed that the Wide West goes on the route between here and Portland, commencing to-morrow morning.
