In doing this we are either right or wrong. If we are wrong, then it is wrong for any one to protest against injustice; it is wrong for any newspaper man to raise his voice against monopoly greed; it is wrong to have a soul of your own or to do otherwise than get a railroad pass and keep your mouth shut.

As to any "antagonism" to railroad managers the thought never entered our head. Mr. Villard, who by the way, spent half an hour in Astoria yesterday, certainly knows his own business. If his plans include building to or from Astoria, if by taking cognizance and interest in Astoria's welfare be should determine that ing would be best served in including Astoria in his railroad plans, we believe as a shrewd business man he would do so. If the interests intrusted to his keephe feels that he can ignore Astoria, God's blessing still be on him; that is his privilege; let him go. Men like Villard are actuated entirely by motives of policy: they have no preference for one particular place; their ideas are purely those of utility; capital has no sympathy and pecuniary gain is the only creed it recognizes. Mr. Villard has made it as plain as it is possible that he has no present use for Astoria. We have not as yet met any one that seemed to take the matter seriously to heart; but there is no "antagonism" in reference to the matter. What we demand is that the Astoria land grant shall be forfeited. If that doesn't suit Mr. Villard or his colleagues much as the fact may be regretted yet we propose to see it through. The pleasure or displeasure of any individual is a secondary consider-

There are rumors in San Francisco relative to putting on an opposition steamer between that city and the Columbia river.

Chicago has had sixty-nine undoubted murders since the beginning of the year 1881, and of all the murderers only one has been hanged.

WE WANT, IF POSSIBLE, TO INDUCE outside capital to seek an investment in Astoria, and think something in that direction might be done if parties desiring to rent business or dwelling houses in Astoria would leave their names with us. We think with a list of bona fide applications of that kind parties with capital might be convinced that a good investment could be made here by erecting tenement and other houses to rent.
