Strength of Character.

Strength of character consists of two things-power of will, and power of self-restrint. It requires two things to its existence-strong feeling and strong command over them. Now, it is here we make a great mistake-we mistake strong feeling for strong character. A man who bears all before him, before whose frown domestics tremble, and whose bursts of fury make the children of the household quake-because he has his will obeyed, and his own way in all things-we call him a strong man. The truth is, this is a weak man: it is his passion that is strong; he, mastered by them, is weak. You must measure the strength of the man by the power of those which subdue him. And hence composure is very often the highest result of strength. Did you ever see a man receive a flagrant insult and only grow a little pale and quietly reply? This is a man spiritually strong. Or did you ever see a man in anguish stand as if carved out of solid rock, mastering himself? Or one bearing a hopeless daily trial remain silent, and never tell the world what cankered his home-peace? That is strength. He who with strong passion remains chaste; he who, keenly sensitive, with many powers of indignation in him, can be provoked and yet restrain himself and forgive-these are the strong men, the spiritual heroes.

A prominent politician and active journalist, Mr. George L. Graham connected with the Sunday Mirror, who, by using the Great German Remedy, St. Ja- Adair, S. D. & Co..... cobs Oil, was cured of a troublesome case of rheumatism, contracted during the war. He closes a long statement with-"to those who are afflicted with that complaint, it is worth its weight in gold."

SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't rou rather feel fresh and st. ong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown' Iron Bit-TERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

> Mansfield, Ohlo, Nov. 15, 1821.
> Gentlemen:—I have st ferred with pain in my aide and back, and great soreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and less of apperite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite.—aid am gaining in strength and fieth. It can justly be called the king of medicines.
> JOHN K. ALLENDER. Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 25, 1821.

Brown's Iron BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form: Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.
