

The Daily Astorian.
 ASTORIA, OREGON:
 THURSDAY APRIL 19, 1883
 The Queen went to sea yesterday. The State is due to-morrow.
 Miss A. R. Luse, the celebrated elocutionist, will read at Liberty Hall to-morrow night.
 The A. B. Field is advertised to leave for Tillamook at 6 o'clock next Thursday morning.
 The Elmore still abides; some of the crew being temporary guests of the Hotel de Trombly.
 Seventeen liquor dealers have been arrested in Portland for doing business without a license.
 Thirty miles of railroad on the Oregon extension from Riddle, will be ready for acceptance in a week's time.
 Dr. Baker leaves by this morning's boat for Portland, to attend the bedside of his brother who is very sick.
 The funeral of the late Immanuel Johnson took place from Grace church yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended.
 Ed. D. Curtis & Co. call attention to the fact that they have some beautiful goods including carpets, furniture, wall paper, etc.
 All outside work in the city was yesterday pursued under the disadvantage of a steady rain which poured almost incessantly during the day.
 Thos. H. Brents, announces a vacancy in the U. S. Naval Academy, from Washington Territory. Those applying for examination must be between 14 and 18 years of age.
 The schooners Kate and Anns and the Ona were lying at anchor at Newport last Friday, waiting for a favorable opportunity to make the passage over the bar. The Miles is still at Gray's harbor.
 The Central Pacific railroad which has been paying its men at Sacramento twenty cents an hour for ten hours a day, has cut down the time to eight hours. $1.60 cents a day is poor wages in California for a man with a family.
 The following programme is to be rendered at Liberty Hall, to-morrow evening, by Miss A. R. Luse: Too late for the train; Poe's Bells; Hunting a Mouse; Doom of Claudius and Cynthia; The dead doll; Rock of Ages; Phillip's first baby; How Rubenstein played the piano.
 The East Portland Vindicator is giving some of its debtors a send off by advertising its claims against them as being for sale at fifty cents on the dollar. Even should those parties be able to take with them after death the money that they beat that paper out of, it wouldn't do them any good, as it would be sure to melt.
 The Japanese pheasants that have been turned loose in Clatsop county, and which are said to be doing very well, will be more valuable for their plumage than their flesh. The wife of Consul Denny has presented a lady in this city, says the Welcome, with a bonnet made entirely of feathers taken from these birds, which embraces all the hues of the rainbow and is "beautiful beyond compare."
 To a proposition from Umattilla county farmers that if he would build a road from Pendleton to Blue Mountain, they would give him $30,000, Mr. Villard, last Tuesday, in Portland, answered that it was not the policy of the company he represented to take subsidies; their intention was to furnish the cities of the northwest with all needed transportation facilities at their own cost, and assured the committee he would himself take a look at the country they represented at once, and that he would see that the desired line of road was completed in time to move the season's crop.
Lost in the Breakers.
 The life of a Columbia river fisherman is a perilous one, and every year witnesses the make up of a melancholy roll of poor fellows whose bodies are swept to the ocean. The first lost this season, started down in boat No. 2 of Geo. Hume's cannery, last Tuesday morning and were last seen that afternoon. Yesterday morning the boat was found full of water, at Sand Island; but no sign of the two who manned it. The captain's name was Otto Anderson, the name of the boat puller we were unable to learn.

 To all kind friends that did the tast honor to August Gieselman at his funeral I tender my best thanks for their sympathy. J. F. VOSS.
 The friends of Emanuel Johnson (deceased), take this method of thanking the ladies of the choir of Grace church for the kind assistance rendered by them at the funeral service of deceased.
 Just received, the latest styles of Birthday Cards, also Wedding Cards, something new, in elegant variety, at Adler's Bookstore.

Proper Action.
 The subject of the Astoria land grant is one in which every citizen of Astoria feels a personal interest. Our Astoria chamber of commerce has on several occasions voiced public opinion by its actions relative thereto, and it is the opinion of that body that the present visit of Mr. Villard to this coast should be made the opportunity of meeting that gentleman relative to this important matter. The following telegram was sent from this city last Tuesday:
 ASTORIA, April 17, 1883.
 HENRY VILLARD, Esq., PORTLAND:
 I am instructed respectfully to inquire if, before you return east, you will meet a committee from the Astoria chamber of commerce, either here or at Portland, to discuss the subject of the Astoria land grant.
 E. C. HOLDEN,
 Sect. y Astoria Chamber of Commerce.
 The following is Mr. Villard's reply:
 PORTLAND, April 17, 1883.
 E. C. HOLDEN, SECRETARY ASTORIA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE:
 I will be very happy to meet a committee of the Chamber of Commerce here, but am obliged to postpone the meeting till next week as I shall be absent on Puget Sound meantime; I will suggest the day later.
 Very Truly, H. VILLARD.
 The chamber will accordingly appoint a committee to confer with Mr. Villard, whose position as head of the great railway system of the northwest places value upon his views and actions relative to a matter that has such intimate connection with our welfare.
