health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and st. ong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown' Iron Bit-TERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

> Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. of., 1881.
> Gentlemen:—I have enflered with pain in my side and back, and great coreness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of apportune. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite.—and am gaining in strength and fleth. It can justify be called the king of medicines.

The Latest Plot Kill the Czar.

The latest plot to kill the Czar was discovered in the begining of last month. A student of fine arts attempted to committ suicide in a bath, but was discovered in time to prevent his purpose. On being questioned as to his motive for the act he confessed that it was owing to his connection with the nihilists. He had been commanded by that body to kill the Czur, and had taken measures to do so, but his courage failed at the critical moment, and, knowing what would be his fate from the nihilists, he preferred suicide. The attempt on the Czar's life was to have been made at the time when the regimental fete of the Finland Regiment was celebrated, the Czar having been present at the banquet on that occasion. The student managed to be present in the guise of a waiter and was armed with a pocket revolver, intending when he found himself face to face with the Czar to fire. This opportunity soon arrived, but at the critical moment his courage failed, and in the confusion he hurried from the room and ran straight to the bath, where he made the attempt on his own life. The information which the police obtained from him enabled them to make some arrests. This latest discovery is said to have made a profound impression on the Czar. M. Tolstol requested the Czar to exercise greater precautions and to expose himself as little as possible, to which his Majesty replied: "It is all the same to me and I am now prepared for anything, I have escaped by the merest chance and you and I were alike ignorant of the danger I was in."

It is stated that should the emperor of Annam refuse the demands of France 1000 troops and several gunboars will be sent to occupy strategic points on the
