A lot of Boston tourists were traveling in a sleeping car, also a Nevada traveler. In the morning when the porter went round to collect his assessments on bootblacking there was a great commotion among the Boston tourists. Some paid him a five-cent nickel and those who had no nickels were compelled to yield up short bits. All the while the Nevada man, dressed in ordinary clothes, sat reading his newspaper. When the porter reached him he looked up inquiringly:

"Did you black my boots, sir?"

"Yes, sah." "You did a splendid job. Never had my boots blacked so well be-
