

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, MAY 13, 1883

The Alumina has arrived out. The C. S. Hulbert is 192 days out. The State is due to-morrow morning. The Salem board of trade has fifty members. Salmon were running a little better last week. An earthquake shook Victoria, B. C., last Friday. There are more daily newspapers in Washington Territory than in Oregon. W. Eastman can hear something to his advantage by calling at THE ASTORIAN OFFICE.

The public school in district No. 1, closes next Friday. The schools in districts 9 and 18 will run several weeks longer. Wonder how much stock "Alfred F. Sears, C. E.," holds with Mr. Pittock in the land company recently formed at Tacoma! The Gen. Canby leaves Gray's dock at ten this morning, on an excursion to Fort Canby and Ilwaco. Weather permitting. Rev. R. Schmidt, of the German Reform church, will hold divine service in the Baptist church to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. The street in front of the Baptist church is so nearly completed from Olney to Cass street that the church is accessible from both streets. The building and improving of Astor street from Olney westward, affects somewhat the comfort and convenience of dwellers along the route. To-morrow the new station of Glendale, sixty-five miles south of Roseburg, on the Oregon and California extension, will be opened for traffic. The largest fish we have heard of being caught this season was taken by boat No. 6, of the Eureka Packing Co., yesterday morning. The fish weighed seventy pounds. The A. E. Field sailed for Tillamook yesterday morning; the Wide West arrived down at 11:10 A. M.; the Queen crossed to sea at 3:25 P. M.; the Oklahama started up with the Ryegale in tow. Buildings on Squemoqua street are in every stage of progress. At low tide the piles for the foundation of Kinney's brick building are being sawed off, and a slimy, mucky job it is. Chaplain Scott will preach in the Baptist church at 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. to-day. Subject in the morning, "The polity of the New Testament church;" evening, "Ingersoll and the Flood."

A good hog does not squeal, nor is he restless. - Salem Statesman. The above from an editorial in our capital contemporary is respectfully recommended to the consideration of the Seattle Herald. The building of a side walk—an exemplification of a straight and narrow path—from the court house to the jail, is a minor improvement that should not go unnoticed, even in these days of bustle and building. The mail locks and keys heretofore used by the P. O. department have been "called in," and new locks and keys issued. On the last steamer came sixteen locks and keys for the postoffices of Astoria and vicinity. "Scarlet velvet" is said to be the correct thing for gentlemen's evening suits in New York this season. An exchange says, "a gentleman appearing at an evening party in a scarlet velvet suit creates a sensation." Well, we should smile. Several water front properties at Tacoma have recently changed hands at $500 per lot, or twenty dollars per foot. - Ledger. If you want to see what water frontage at a seaport is worth drop over here. Would furnish quotations, but they are too liable to advance. - Cheo Yung, the unlucky Mongolian who stole just 44 cents worth of cloth too much, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Stott to one year in the penitentiary. - Oregonian. The U. M., had he deserted his wife and induced a girl to marry him, might have got off with a fine of $300. Postmaster Chance informs us that he will receive sealed proposals for carrying the U. S. mail between Astoria and the steamboat landing each way, as often as required. The time for receiving the bids expires next Saturday. He will give all requisite information upon application. The boys at Fort Canby had a bear hunt last week, and captured a fine fat one at the light house. Two came straying into camp and were surprised to find such a snug retreat in an arsenal. Brain fought well and only surrendered at the twelfth shot and fell at the feet of two of the boys he had cornered.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Resolutions and Ordinances.

At an adjourned meeting of the city council, held May 11th, there were present Mayor Hahn, Councilmen Case, Carruthers, Cooper, Hume and Johns; Messrs Jewett, Laughrey and Fulton. A petition of property owners asking that the grade of a certain part of Cedar street be established, was referred to street committee. The committee reported favorably on the petition of Main street property owners, and also reported favorably on the proposed ordinance establishing the grade of Arch street. The same committee recommended that the petition of Cass street property owners in reference to establishing grade be granted. The committee to whom were referred the reports of city officers for April reported favorably thereon.

ORDINANCES.

An ordinance establishing the grade of a portion of Arch street, heretofore described, was passed. An ordinance providing for the time and manner of improving Arch street between West-5th, and the west end was passed. The following claims against the city were ordered paid: I. W. Case, $5; Clatsop Mill company, $115.83; Morey & Co., $11.25.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the auditor and clerk be and he is hereby instructed to give due and legal notice that the common council propose to establish the grade of Cass street from the north side of Squemoqua to the south side of Arch.

That the city council propose to improve Main street from the south side of Astor to the south side of 8th street. That the committee on fire and water be authorized to contract for a hammer or apparatus to strike the fire bell on the outside for the purpose of giving fire alarms; that the said apparatus be capable of striking a blow equal to forty pounds; the cost of same not to exceed fifty dollars, without further instructions from the council.

That the committee on fire and water be authorized to advertise for bids for the construction of a wagon road from the landing on Skipanon creek to the city cemetery. Also for bids for clearing a portion of the grounds, and for other improvements. It was moved and carried that the council retain the bills of Jos. Buchtel now in their hands, for section hose, etc., and that the auditor and clerk be instructed to ask him to send the original bill with his commission and freight bill attached. It was moved and carried that the council when it adjourns, adjourn to meet as a committee of the whole to take into consideration the draft of an ordinance regulating the fire department. On motion council adjourned.

Card of Thanks.

The young ladies who gave the entertainment at Liberty Hall last Friday evening take occasion to return thanks on behalf of the Y. M. C. A., to all who aided in any way to make it the success it was.

The success that met the entertainment at Liberty hall last Friday night encourages the Home Dramatic association in the belief that their efforts will be as warmly welcomed next Tuesday evening. The association is all that it claims to be—a home dramatic society, and apart from its evident ability as demonstrated on former occasions, the fact of its being a local institution should commend it to our citizens generally. On Tuesday evening—"Enlisted for the War; or Woman's Wit."

A special meeting of Astoria Engine Co. No. 1, was held at the hall of the company last evening. It was decided to send a team to Salem to take part in the tournament. Sufficient volunteered to insure making up a good team, and after some discussion in reference to the captaincy of the team it was decided to arrange that matter at the first drill.

According to all reports the farmers in the White and Puyallup river valleys will confine their attention this season almost wholly to the cultivation of hops. The Chronicle trusts that their most sanguine expectations in this direction may be fully realized, yet it cannot withhold the suggestion that it would be more safe to devote a portion of the cultivated lands to diversified crops. A failure of the hop crop, or serious depreciation in the market value of the product, would entail great loss, that could be more easily borne were a portion of the land devoted to hay, potatoes, etc. Hay makes fat bees, and there can never be a depression in the beef market.

Professional Lassitude.

There are certain characteristics connected with a lazy man which are admirable. They excite in the twanging, jingling breasts of the nervously fidgety a feeling which borders on respect and is akin to awe. Your double-gear fidgety man will spin all day like a top and run down in the cool of the evening on the identical spot on which he started off after breakfast. The man suffering from chronic lassitude will keep still keep cool, keep in the shade, put in a full day's work resting himself, and arrive on time at sundown, cool, calm and collected, without having once sweated under the collar or laid a hair. The professional lazy man seems to eat, drink, and sleep with as much gusto and sang froid as his fidgety brother with the high-pressure anatomy and double-cylinder, fast, perfecting, hygienic apparatus who gets hot in the box and wears and grinds and cuts his life away like a piece of misfit machinery. The fact of the whole business is, the man of bustle and confusion wears his life away for the want of the oil of rest. The professional lazy man just soaks along through this vale of tears like a handful of cotton waste in the oil cup of a box-car axle. We have not the least doubt in the world but that we could be a professional lazy man and not half try. If we had to try very hard it would break the spell. The charm would have flown, and things would be sadly mixed. The motto of the man afflicted with chronic lassitude is, "Give us a rest—or, give us death." The professional lazy man gets to the graveyard on schedule time the same as the nervous fidgety gentleman who worries along the pathway of life like a Texas mule fighting sand flies. And the moral of all this is to the effect that it is far better to be born lazy than crooked, deformed, and, as Rickard III says, "sent into this breathing world scarce half made up." - Texas Sayings.

The Coast Road.

For some time, says the Petaluma, Cal. Courier there have been rumors of a contemplated change in the route of the North Pacific Coast Narrow Gauge Railroad running from Saucelito to Duncan's Mill. We can now report facts showing that it was not idle railroad talk, but has a real foundation. Mr. Buchanan, the engineer of the road, with a full force of hands, has been for several days surveying a route for that road from Clark's Summit, near Bloomfield, via Tabor's Summit in Blucher Valley, and through Green Valley to Sebastopol. The road will then be continued northerly through Sonoma, Mendocino and Humboldt counties, passing through the redwood belt and connecting near the state line with the Oregon Narrow-Gauge Railroad, thus making a continuous line of coast railroad from San Francisco bay to the Columbia river.
