Come Home to Roost.

Or late, New York and Philadel phia papers have found a new topic for editorial comment. Time was when they informed Pacific Coasters that the Chinese were coming to this country by direction Excelsion of Divine Providence that they might be converted and saved and MANIFOLD COPYING INK. translated to a Christian heaven. The joke was that they were actually sincere; they believed it. This in itself was all right, but our eastern mentors went farther. They said we were wicked, cruel, Sandford's glass, quarts, pints, and 4 oz. bottless in gentle Chinamen, and they in righteous wrath rebuked us for Sanford's Violet, Bankers Blue and Red Ink. such unseemly conduct toward the meek Mongolian.

But a change has taken place-But a change has taken place—
The Sun, Herald, World, Ledger,
Times, and other metropolitan journals are to-day gravely com ing fluid gives eight copies at once as clear as the writing; can be taken months after writing.

All our ink flows freely, will not mold, will not off set, is almost indelible, is not injured by freezing. menting on sundry discoveries of Sanford Manufacturing Co. debauchery, prostitution. and kindred vices, which Senator Edmund's "little brown man" has been spreading in Atlantic cities Not the least noticeable the whimper that pervades They all say "what will those Pacific coast people say? And when they reflect that out of a population of 250,000 San Francisco has 30,000 Chinese, while out of a population of 1,250,000, New York has but 3,060 Chinese they can perhaps realize why it was that California and the coast "kicked" against that which the Atlantic people thought a "manifestation of the wisdom of Providence" and try to "convert" the dirty beathen.

True and False Journalism.

THE Brooklyn Eagle comments on the mistaken idea of supposing that because a man has plenty of money he can successfully conduct a newspaper. "Capitalists might purchase every existing newspaper in the country to-day," says the Eagle, "and to-morrow a trained journalist with a good conscience, fair ability and credit for a hand-press and a few reams of paper would arise to speak for the public and would destroy all the capital put into the organs"

This is true. The people are quick to discover when a newspaper is designed to promote other interests than their own. They may read such a paper, but they will not be guided or influenced by its opinions, and they will mistrust its motives even when it is sincere. A newspaper, to wield power, must be made for all rather than one man-for the whole people. It must carry to the minds of its readers the conviction that it is earnestly the friend of popular rights and not the champion of individual schemes. Men who have special enterprises to promote make a mistake when they secure the control of newspapers for that purpose. The moment their hand is recognized the weapon it holds becomes barm-

The people are the capital of an bonest newspaper. It is their friend and they give it success. Money enables a trained journalist to add strength and interest to his paper and to make it more deserving of popular support. But all the money in the world will not, as the Eagle says, give influence, power and success to a newspaper that speaks for special intercats and not for the public good

"WHIMS."

Whims is similar to Pop, Hobbles Photo's and the Vokes. "Oh, but she is a daisy." It is chuck full of laughter and lots of fine singing. "The door was open and the wind blew it in." This is not a melodrama; it is not a farce, but a conglomeration of pleasure, and will warrant you say so after you have seen it.

Some of the company you are ac-quainted with, as they visited your city with the Esmeralda Company. The others are all first class artists. Reserved seats can be secured without extra charge at Strauss' New York

All under the management of J. H. LOVE.
