

The Daily Astorian

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, MAY 29, 1883. Dry weather. LOOK OUT FOR FIRE. Decoration day to-morrow.

A Genuine Boom.

VICTORIA, V. I., May 8, 1883. It was one of the loveliest of California's early spring-mornings. The crisp northwest breeze had lifted from the metropolis the dense sheet of fog that hung dripping over its temples and palaces during the previous night.

THE COMING 'DICTATOR'

Wall street is looking around for a successor to the retiring giant, Gould and Vanderbilt, and Henry Villard is talked of as the coming dictator of the "street." He is unquestionably a strong man and, moreover, is liked personally by the members of the financial managerie.

Oregon State Militia.

His Excellency Governor Moody has just made the following executive appointments in the Oregon State Militia: Hon. Chris. Taylor, of Dayton, major general.

The chief of the Secret Service Division of the United States Treasury reports that a new counterfeit five-dollar gold piece is in circulation.

Its weight is 48 1/2 grains light and it is plated heavily. It purports to have been struck off at New Orleans in 1843, but differs from the original in many ways.

The steamer Otter arrived here last evening, says the Victoria Standard, from Port Simpson, and brings word of a general strike amongst the Indians employed at the canneries on the northwest coast.

The natives refuse to work unless their pay is advanced. The Chinamen who went up on the Otter to search for the bodies of their countrymen, lost by the burning of the Grappler, returned without finding any trace or clue.

Two-Thirds of a Bottle Cured.

Dr. R. V. French, Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir—I have been taking your "Favorite Prescription" for "female weakness." Before I had taken it two days I began to feel stronger. I have taken but two-thirds of a bottle and believe I am cured.

Gratefully, Mrs. H. C. Lovitt, Watska, Ill.
