N.P. R.R. R. Notes.

From Emile Bories, who came down from Missolua last Wednesday, The Dalles Times-Mountaineer learns the following items about the progress of the work: There are about 500 men at work between Sand Point and Perma, most of them engaged in surfacing the track. The bridge over Marentz Gulch is 800 feet long ME OF THE GLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE and 226 feet high. There are only fifteen men at work on this struct- Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, ure. The cars now run to the crossing of the Jocko, fifty miles from Missolua, and grading is finished along the whole line, ready for track-layers. Mr. Bories does not think that the road will THROAT, LUNGS AND CHEST, be finished by September 1st. The Mullen tunnel is not nearly com pleted yet, and several bridges are yet to be built. At the third crossing of Clark's Fork seventyfive men are at work constructing a Howe truss bridge, and about thirty-five engaged in handling freight. When Mr. Villard passed over the road lately, he ordered curved iron to replace the rails used at curves. This will take some time and require a vast amount of labor. Winston Bros., who now have the contract from the Flathead reservation, are pushing the track through as quickly as possible; but they work much slower than J. L. Hallett did. Bridge builders now receive $8 per day, and there is a rumor that soon another strike will be made for $10. At first they received $4 but by constant strikes have got their wages increased to the present rate. One hundred and six thousand five hundred pounds of merchandise was received at Chehalis in two days by prairie schooners.
