The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

WEDNESDAY..... .....JUNE 6, 1883

BISMARCK is the new capital of Dakota, Yankton being too far south.

From 150 to 300 immigrants a day are now coming into California by the C. P. R. R.—San Jose Mercury.

YES, they've got to pass through California on their way to Oregon and Washington Territory.

TWELVE Japanese newspapers have been obliged to further forego the pleasure of publication on account of inability to furnish $1,000 as a guarantee to the government that they would be properly conducted. Japan is a great country.

"WHEN rogues fall out," etc. The Hon. Geo. W. Julian, once a Republican senator from Indiana, now "anything to beat Grant," scores Carl Schurz, that prince of carpet-baggers, in the New York Sun, and shows him up in his true light as an apostle of "snivel service reform."

A SAN FRANCISCO special says Captain Besse, who returned from the north several days ago, where he has been in the interests of capitalists, to report upon the project of building a road from Roseburg to Coos bay, has completed his report and will submit it to the parties interested on his arrival in Boston. It is understood from private sources that the report is favorable, and that the road will be commenced as soon as the preliminaries are arranged.

A FACT brought out by the British postmaster-general's annual report is that during the last fiscal year the United States sent Great Britain 10,500,000 newspapers and received from her 8,500,000. This shows that American newspapers may claim a great as well as growing transatlantic circulation; and upon the whole the British journals do certainly display more knowledge of America and American affairs than they did some years ago. They no longer fancy Chicago a rendezvous for savages, nor suppose the Greenbackers to be so called from the color of their garments.

IT is not to be denied that all calculations regarding political results are rendered more worthless than usual at present by reason of the undeniable state of unrest in which a large body of the voters of both parties find themselves. There has never been a time since the war when party ties rested so loosely upon the masses. There is not a solitary issue affecting parties in the campaign about to begin which can be effectually used to tighten the lines. There is friction and discord in the ranks of both parties, and a mistake in either of the nominating conventions will be more potent for the ruin of the party making it than for years past has been possible. The independent voter is abroad in the land, and all the signs indicate that his voice will be a potent one.

Pointers.

A recent parade of colored troops in Charleston was enlivened by a whistling accompaniment of 500 of the men.

Out of a total population of about 50,000,000 in this country, there were in 1880 a little over 250,000 people insane, idiotic, blind and deaf and dumb.

American politics were never tamer than they are to-day. In other words, the country has rarely been so prosperous or its government so fairly administered.

The proposition, which seemed a jest several years ago, to specially insure houses against destruction by wind as well as by fire, has become almost a thing of ordinary precaution in the Southwest.

The English are to-day the nation whose dress controls the habits of the civilized world, just as the French were 150 years ago, the Italians 300 years ago the Spaniards 300 years ago, and a little earlier Venice.

There are seven newspapers in the United States which are over one hundred years old. They are the Portsmouth, N. H., Gazette, Newport, R. I., Mercury, New London, Conn., Gazette, Hartford, Conn., Courant, New Haven, Conn., Journal, Salem, Mass., Gazette, Worcester, Mass., Spy. THE ASTORIAN will be ten years old next month.

Before cutting a man's head off in China the authorities considerately make him drunk; and occasionally a rich convict who has been sentenced to death will hire, or rather buy, a coolie to take his place. The coolie leads a riotous life for some little time beforehand, and at last, in a state of besotted helplessness, meets death without apparent suffering.

The issue upon which the Republican party of Ohio will go before the people this year, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says, is "whether the liquor traffic ought to be taxed or ought to continue free. The Scott law taxes the traffic, and the Republican party is responsible for it, and upon that principle it will succeed or fail in the approaching contest."

At a recent southern camp-meeting the eloquent divine said: "The wheels of the righteous shriek and groan as they toil up the hill of salvation and over the ruts of temptation and the bridge of damnation, and have to scrowdge pretty lively to get up at all; but the sinner with greased wheels and flying colors, slips down to tarnation like a dose of oil, with a rip and a whizz, and raises no dust whatever."

Young cattle are reported to be dying in the upper part of the John Day valley with the same disease that caused so much loss on the Malheur and other parts of Eastern Oregon two and three years ago. Only yearlings and sucking calves are affected so far. This disease causes the death of young, fat and apparently healthy cattle within a short time after the appearance of the first symptoms and no remedy for it is known. Very fat cattle are more liable to its attack than poor ones.

MARRIED.

Summons.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE of Oregon, for Clatsop County.

Mary A. Leinenweber and C. Leinenweber Plaintiffs, vs. C. G. Glass, Defendant.

To C. G. Glass, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action, on, or before Tuesday, August 7th, 1883, said day being the first day of the next regular term of said Circuit Court: and if you fail so to appear and answer for want thereof the plaintiffs will take judgment against you for the possession of the premises described in plaintiff's complaint: to wit the premises situate in Clatsop County, Oregon in sections twenty-five, twenty-six, thirty-five, and thirty-six, and known and described as the Donation Land Claim of T. P. Powers and Mary Powers his wife, saving and excepting one hundred and thirty-five acres off the west side of said Donation Land Claim, together with the sum of fifty dollars damages for withholding possession of said premises from plaintiffs and the further sum of eighty two 50-100, the rents, issues and profits of said premises and for the costs and disbursements of action.

This summons is served by publication thereof in the DAILY ASTORIAN, pursuant to an order made by the Hon. A. S. Bennett, Judge of said Court, which said order was made on May 22nd, 1883.

F. D. WINTON,
Attorney for Plaintiffs.
