ASTOPIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY ... JULY 3, 1803

EXAS has 50,000 acres of school land rapidly appreciating in value. and worth probably $100,000,000, and is expected to have in the not distant future a school fund of a a quarter of a billion dollars.

THE Pall Mall Gazette says the Suez Canal is in a fair way to become a stagnant sewer. The stations on its bank draw in to it, it is never flushed, there is no tide and the stench is becoming unbearable.

It is the part of an indiscreet and troublesome ambition to care about fame, about what the world says of us; to be always looking lute the faces of others for approval; to be always shouting to hear the eaho of our own voices.

According to a native Japanese paper, the picturesque old junks which have so often figured in stories and pictures of maritime life in the far east are rapidly dis appearing, at least so far as Japan is concerned. Shipbuilding in ONTHEANIGHT OF THE 20TH JUNE, Japanese style is so far giving place to foreign construction that by and by there will be no such thing as a junk except in paint-

Dr. Frederick H. Brandes of Gottingen specifies a A FINE ASSORTMENT OF YOUNG CAparticular district near the old 3-twk Prussian fortress of Minden, where distinct traces still exist. The author gives a curious list of English words used there.

THE San Francisco Occiden preaches the following short sermon to its readers: "A worldly man's life is three-score years and ten, or possibly four-score years. It begins with youth, reaches its maturity in middle life and then declines like the sun at evening, casting long shadows upon the earth until it sets in the grave But he who has received the new life in Christ knows that he is to live right on. R. R. MARION. all the true knowledge he has acquired will be valuable and he will keep on learning. There all the spiritual growth he has secured will be valuable and he will keep on growing. While the bark of the worldling sinks as he nears the bendland of the great ocean called eternity and all his treasures are lost, the bark of the Christian, with his freightage of truth and love, goes out upon the mysterious billows to sail over them for ever. Hence, when the Christian begins to feel the winds of the ocean and they chill the bodily senses his spirit is reanimated. Those chilling winds are to him the premonitions of immortality."
