

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, JULY 8, 1883

Astoria's Greatest Menace.

The history of the first vigilance committee ever organized in Astoria, as told in yesterday's paper, brings up a good deal that has most intimate concern with the growth and prosperity of our city.

"I don't want my liberty interfered with, I want to do just as I please, I have a right to do as I please." Just so, you certainly have a right to do as you please, for that is absolute liberty, but you have no right to interfere with any one else's right to do as he pleases.

A SAN FRANCISCO dispatch says: Although the season for coast and geodetic survey forces to be in the field has arrived, no orders have been received at the sub office here, and the assistants are consequently in a state of masterly inactivity.

NAUGHTY Republicans in Ohio are reprinting Judge Hoddeley's fierce attacks upon the Democracy a few years ago. The fact that the Judge wants those same Democrats to elect him governor next October makes it embarrassing for him as a candidate.

THE highest tribunal in this country is public opinion, and its decisions are seldom wrong and never reversed.

Notice ALL PERSONS ARE HEREBY NOTICED not to purchase any notes made payable to me, as I have not transferred them to any one and they probably have been stolen during the fire. July 2, 1883. A. G. SPEKARTH.

Notice ANY PARTIES HAVING LOST ANY article at the late fire will confer a favor by calling at the house of Thomas Stanfield and searching said house, as several articles have been found there amongst the effects of J. H. Leonard, who, through compassion, he sheltered, but as articles belonging to other parties have been found with his effects, I hereby notify all parties to search my house, so that the public will not be under the impression that I took them.
