

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, JULY 10, 1888

A Definite Offer. We are informed that an offer to build a railroad from Astoria to the Willamette valley has been made to the Astoria and Winemucca railroad company.

The Coming Campaign. There is but one way says Harper's Weekly, in which the evident plan of the Democratic party can be successfully met, and that way is, not to rely upon distrust of that party, but to cultivate trust in the Republican party.

The action of the Astoria committee of safety elicits considerable outside opinion. The following, from the Oregonian, embodies the rational view of the case.
