You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown' Iron Bit-TERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

> Gentlemen:—I have suffered with pain in my side and b. c., and point in grains all through my body, attended with grain walk meakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bittern; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite—all am gaining in strength and fine. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

Some bald-headed philosopher has said that "no thoroughly occupied man was ever unhappy." We have our doubts about that. As a rule it may be all right, but there are exceptions. We remember seeing a young man sit down upon a hornet's nest once, when the hornets were at home. For a time he was the most thoroughly occupied young man we ever saw; DNE OF THE OLDEST AND MOST RELIABLE and if he wasn't unhappy, appear-

The new trunk line through Pennsylvania to the west, a project of Vanderbilt's, is likely to be proceeded with. It will be a great work. There will be ten tunnels, aggregating almost eight miles in length, and a large proportion of the road is on grades of 26 feet to the mile. The capital stock will be fixed at $20,000,-000. Robert H. Sayer, the superintendent of construction, gets $25,000 a year.

Iowa, which has always been a Republican state, and one of the most prosperous, enterprising and moral sections of the Union, has just paid the last of her war debt, and has a handsome sum in her treasury. While Democratic states have been repudiating bonest obligations, this Republican commonwealth has met every claim with scrapulous honor.
