

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

TUESDAY, JULY 31, 1888

—Have you seen the sun spots?

—Special council meeting to-night.

—The Queen is due from San Francisco this morning.

—Portland's taxable property aggregates $20,000,000 in value.

—Two dollars a day and board are the wages offered harvesters in eastern Oregon and Washington.

—The Edith is receiving a general overhauling, and will be out of business for two weeks.

—Tin plate 14x20 is selling in San Francisco at $5.50 per box. Heavy importations have reduced the price.

—Even the hens are affected by the drought and the cash value of their staple production is 45 cents per dozen.

—The Gen. Miles will leave for Gray's harbor at five o'clock this morning. She will return to-morrow afternoon.

—Hens' eggs 1,200 years old have been discovered in St. Elmo, France, and for the first time Portland realizes what strong opposition is.

—Yesterday's Portland papers had the usual quota of dispatches: the W. U. T. Co., seem to have the best of it,—a foregone conclusion.

—C. W. Fulton, city attorney, has tendered his resignation to the city council, his other business requiring his undivided time and attention.

—Mrs. Hewitt and Miss Clara Hewitt start this morning on an extended visit to Lake River, Clark Co., W. T. The Clara Parker has been chartered for the trip.

—Grading on the Oregon Short Line is progressing rapidly toward Boise City, and trains are running to Little Rattlesnake, a distance of fifty miles east of there.

—The Gen. Miles and A. B. Field arrived in Portland last Sunday. The A. B. Field will leave for Tillamook, to-morrow from Main street wharf, at six A. M.

—The Northern Pacific Railroad company will soon commence the construction of a large grain elevator at Albina. Its capacity will be 45,000 tons. The cost of the building and machinery will be $800,000.

—"Col" Jos. Dolph, the little five year old son of Cyrus Dolph, fell from the balusters of the Seaside house Sunday night, seriously injuring himself. A doctor was immediately summoned from Ft. Stevens, and the little fellow attended to.

—Livingstone Stone, of the United States Fishery Commission, who has just returned to San Francisco from the east, states that 5,000,000 salmon eggs will be placed in the fisheries on the McCloud river this season and next year. Trout eggs are also to be planted.

—Her Majesty's sloop-of-war, Heroine ran up her pennant to the main yesterday afternoon, and swung out en suite to Victoria. As she passed down the stream every steamer saluted her, the crews displayed their colors, and the crowd on the dock cheered, all of which she duly acknowledged. The first mate desired us to make particular mention that she is a "sloop-of-war."

—The projected Astoria and Forest Grove railroad is the absorbing topic in Washington county. The belief is prevalent that the road, if built, will enter Washington county by coming down Gale's creek, that stream, in the opinion of many, offering superior natural advantages to Manning's creek, its bed, for nearly the entire length, being supplied with gravel sufficient to ballast the entire road-bed.

—Pacific county W. T. is to have a newspaper. It is to be published at Oysterville. Mr. Bowen is to be the editor. It is to be called the Pacific Journal. We are glad to see such evidence of prosperity with our neighbors across the river. Chehalis county has a newspaper, Pacific county is going to have one, Tillamook should have one too, and it may be that Wahkiakum county may have a paper some of these days.

—The C. Southard Hulbert sailed for New York yesterday. She is the first vessel ever chartered in lump from Astoria, and the first to carry salmon from here to New York. If the rates prevail at which she takes salmon round the Horn, the N. P. R. will have to give our cannerymen special figures to get them to ship salmon overland. The extra rate paid from the Columbia for salmon has heretofore represented an annual tax of $40,000 which represented the advantage Sacramento cannery had over the Columbia shippers. Hence after this will not exist.

—Roscoe Dixon's new eating house will be opened to-morrow. Everything has been fitted up in first-class style, and his well known reputation as a caterer assures all who like good things to eat, that at his place they can be accommodated.

—Latest styles in Hats at the Occident Store.

ASTORIA'S LEADING INDUSTRY.

Facts and Figures About Salmon.

At twelve o'clock to-night the close season on the Columbia begins, and salmon fishing ends for '88. The salmon catch for this year presents a good many singular features, which have been discussed from time to time in these columns. It is only intended in this article to present a few figures. While we do not guarantee the exact reliability of the following compilation, yet it will be found almost accurate, and as near absolute correctness as it is at this writing possible to procure.

From July 31st, 1881, to July 31st, 1882, there were shipped from the Columbia river 575,153 cases of salmon; of this quantity 383,424 cases went to foreign ports, and 191,729 cases went to San Francisco. During the salmon season of '82 there were shipped to foreign ports, 174,329 cases; and to San Francisco, 83,340 cases; 100,000 cases more were sent to England on the Wolfe, Glasgow and Elwell, 50,000 cases of the close of the season, just after the removal on the docks and 100,000 cases in the canneries.

From July 31st '82 to July 31st '83, inclusive, there have been shipped from the Columbia river 374,553 cases. It will be noticed that these figures differ materially from last year's; for, while last year the foreign shipment to August 1st aggregated just double the domestic shipments, this year, leaving out the Hulbert's cargo from either side, the domestic shipments nearly double in aggregate the foreign shipments. Since the season of '83 began, there have been shipped from the Columbia river 236,735 cases, of these, 117,878 cases went to England, and 118,857 cases went to San Francisco; adding the Hulbert's 38,237, which started to New York yesterday, gives an aggregate of shipments from the Columbia since April 1st, of 274,972 cases. Of this season's pack, about 11,000 cases were burned in the fire on the 2nd inst., leaving the output for the season, in round numbers 600,000 cases.

In this connection the following figures may be of interest.

Splendid Score.

When the Gen. Canby came in sight last Sunday afternoon on her return trip from the Cape she carried a brown, and on inquiry it was found that she had on board the Astoria base ball club, returning from their victory at Ilwaco. Several games have been played between the Miles club of Fort Canby, W. T., and the Astoria boys, and on last Sunday a match game was played on the grounds of the former club at Ilwaco.

The Miles club was composed of Herringer, L. F.; Buffington, R. F.; Cornish, I. B.; Clark, C. F.; Gould, S. S.; McCudde, 2d B.; Smith, catcher. The Astoria club had Nickerson, L. F.; Grant 1st B.; Lee, 2d B.; Fare, R. F.; Van Dusen, P.; Wise, S. S.; Bruce, C. F.; Thayer, 3rd B.; Parker, catcher. J. C. Darnell and L. A. Allen were scorers, and J. R. Denney, of Fort Canby, was umpire.

In the first two innings the Astoria club played with eight men. On the second innings of the Miles club, Griffin at the bat put a foul ball in his eye, compelling the substitution of Cooper for the rest of the game. The scoring for the nine innings tallied: Miles club, Cornish, 1; Cooper, 1; Gould, 1; McCudde 1; total 4: For the Astoria club, Nickerson, 1; Grant, 1; Lee, 1; Thayer, 1; Parker, 1; total 5; being the best game of baseball ever played by an Astoria nine, and a score which is seldom equaled on the coast. Another game is announced for next Sunday.

Death of Capt. Bochau. It is with sincere regret that a wide circle of friends and acquaintances hear of the death of Wm. Bochau, which sad event took place yesterday afternoon. Some time ago a soft corn on the side of his foot gave him considerable trouble, finally resulting in an open sore. He went to Portland for medical attendance but was unable to get any relief. The ultimate cause of his death appears to be pyæmia.

Capt. Bochau was, until about a year ago, bar pilot on the State of California, and then was afterwards master of the tug Pioneer. He was a native of Holstein, aged about 43 years. A violent distressing fever is the strange fatality that seems to attend the family. But comparatively a short time ago his brother dropped dead at the Cape; a week after his nephew, Walter Pohl, was swept from his side of the Pioneer, and now his death results from an apparently trifling cause.

Jury List. For the August term of the circuit court, Jno. Matier, S. F. Kindred, Clatsop, Jas. Brown, Oscar Church, D. W. Burnside, J. Sture, P. Lingquist, Geo. Sold, Knappa; E. Althaber, Lewis & Clarke's; W. H. Barker, E. P. Hoff, Geo. Haruon, Wm. Douglas, Thos. Grange, P. Mattson, J. L. Hayashi, B. Gallagher, Robert Christie, G. H. George, Robt. Johnson, H. B. Parker, O. Patterson, J. A. Carlson, U. Hassel, Jno. Blake, N. Johansen, C. Buchter, C. S. Carothers, Astoria; D. Odum, W. B. Painter, Young's River; Fred Beer-mann, Seaside.

J. S. Purdon, Sheriff of Douglas county, has captured Glenn and Bradshaw, two of the convicts who escaped at the break of July 3. They were captured near Oakland and were fully identified by Andy Barlow, a former guard at the prison.

Alex Grant, administrator of the estate of Peter Grant, deceased, has brought suit in the circuit court against W. D. Baker, A. G. Spetzarth, C. S. Wright, F. J. Taylor, W. B. Headington and John Hahn, former councilmen of the city of Astoria. The complaint alleges that on the 27th day of November, 1881, by reason of the unsafe condition of the roadway, the estate aforesaid was damaged to the extent of $5,000, and that the defendants are liable and responsible therefor.

To the surprise of a good many, the bicycle contest at Portland was won by Ripperton, who made 266 miles and 13 laps, taking first money, $400; Prof Merrill won second money, $100; with 253 miles, 8 laps to his credit. Of Willie Warren's riding, the News says: "Warren was the favorite with a great majority. His riding was the most attractive, his form the finest, and his quiet bearing universally commended. But he was weak from sickness when the race started, and his stomach would retain no food whatever. Necessarily he grew weaker and weaker until winning was hopeless, but bore himself bravely, and leaves the city with no fewer friends than had he been the winner."

A Dude in Astoria. "Oh, no," he said, "wearily these fellows in Astoria, you know, don't know how to dress at all, 'pon my word," and he sent to San Francisco for his clothes. When they came, the coat had hardly any shoulder in it, the vest was too short and the pants looked like two umbrellas covers sewed together, and he went forth a dandy to perfection. On the first corner they called him a "what is it," in the second place they thought him a fool, and in one of our hotels they pronounced him a full-blown "Dude." By this time he was completely disgusted with himself and his clothes, and went with all possible haste to M. D. Kant, our Boss Merchant Tailor, who took him in charge, fitted him out with a stylish, but sensible suit, a nobby hat, decent shoes, etc., and he went forth a happy mortal once more, wearing neither to buy any more clothing or furnishing goods except of M. D. Kant, the Boss Tailor in town.
