Berry on the Nusel, Williams and McNaughton on Bear river, James Fowler on the Willspa, and Swain and O'Brien on the main Nasel are all working large crews and doing a rushing basis ness. Extensive lorest fires are racher in different localities in the valies, and have already done considerable damage to standing timber, Free Albright having lost all of his valuable sponce thubec. The mill boom at South Bend is full of logs and there are some two million still in tide water not yet ration. Mr. Wood has lately put in place a new and powerful engive to turn the pony saw.
