

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 5, 1883. The Oregon left out yesterday afternoon. Trade dollars are received at par in this office for new subscriptions to the weekly. Will C. King will deliver a lecture on temperance in the Upper Astoria church at eight o'clock to-morrow evening. Capt. P. E. Ferchen's wife and mother-in-law went below on yesterday's steamer, on a visit to friends in Humboldt, Cal. A temporary unsteadiness seems to adversely affect Seattle, six business failures having in the last ten days occurred in our sister city. Robt. Carruthers yesterday began the construction of a brick house, the first brick residence in Astoria, on his lot west of W. B. Headington's. The arrival of the British ship "Pizarro" is reported at Queenstown on July 31st, in the remarkable passage of 90 days from San Francisco. O'Donnell, the murderer of Carey, is said to be preparing an elaborate defense. The simple statement that he is an Ohio man should be sufficient. It is reported that a vein of coal forty-six inches thick has been found on Pebble creek, near the upper Nehalem, within one-and-a-half miles of the proposed railroad. On Sunday the Astoria and Fort Canby boys played another match game of base ball at Ilwaco, victory declaring for the latter, the score standing Fort Canby 12; Astoria 11. Honors are easy. Visitors arriving toward the last of next month will have to look for the blackened remains of the O. R. & N. dock as the sole indications of where the fire of July 2nd swept the streets away, so rapidly is the work of rebuilding going forward. The ferry across the Walluski is finished and in successful operation, and yesterday the first farm wagon and team appeared on our streets. Teams can now cross the Walluski on the road to the Nehalem and work on the road beyond that point goes on. An immense amount of building is being done this season in Astoria. Public buildings, business houses, private residences, etc., and for the first time in the history of Astoria all three classes of buildings have a representative in brick as well as wood. It is stated that Chas. Thompson whose fall was reported yesterday, did not sustain a fracture of the skull, but that it is thought by the attending physician that the pelvic bone is fractured. He was comparatively easy yesterday, and it is now believed that he may recover. All the men who have tried farming in the coast counties, and have managed their affairs in a thrifty and economical manner, have become rich. Many of the old settlers on the Clatsop plains have a full bank account to their credit in this city, as the reward of their patient industry. Oregonian 7. During the present period of high wind and dry weather, the employment of at least one special watchman is a matter of imperative necessity. Causes, apparently trifling in themselves, may give us a horror of which the 2nd of July was but a foretaste, as a matter of economy, its need suggests itself. One by night and one by day are needed. After many trials and sore vexations the British steamer Madras got away yesterday afternoon. She left Hong Kong about four months ago with a cargo of coolies for Honolulu. Smallpox broke out and she was quarantined, and after finally landing her passengers she put away for Victoria, where she was again quarantined. Then she came here and discharged some rice at Portland, where she was not quarantined, but labelled, which was finally compromised and the vessel left for other scenes. She goes to Tacoma and from there to San Francisco, to load for China. The circulation of THE DAILY ASTORIAN is, this morning, precisely double what it was when its present proprietors assumed charge of it, on the 30th of September, 1881; the circulation of THE WEEKLY ASTORIAN is thirty-eight per cent more than it was at that date. THE ASTORIAN is widely quoted from, all over the United States. In a business point of view it helps us to have our articles and editorial utterances quoted by other papers. People who would not otherwise ever hear of our paper, see the notices and in many instances subscribe for the paper, thus helping the paper, and advertising the enterprising and prosperous city in which it is published. Special meeting of Astoria Council No. 965, A. L. of H., on Saturday, August 11, 1883, at 8 o'clock P. M. By order of C. C. R. Y. MONTETH, Secy. Rogers Bros. stored ware and West-eholm cutlery at Jordan & Bozorth's new store.

Court Proceedings.

The August term of the circuit court for this county began yesterday morning, Judge Bennett on the bench. Among the legal gentlemen present were Col. Kelly and Drake, Judge Ballinger, O. F. Paxton, G. W. Yocum, F. R. Strong and P. Killen, of Portland; District attorney McBride of Oregon City; W. B. Dillard of St. Helens; C. H. Page, C. J. Curtis, C. W. Fulton, M. Elliott, J. Q. A. Bowley, F. J. Taylor and W. H. McEwen. The following were drawn to serve as grand jurors: John Matier, foreman; Thos. Grange, David Odum, Peter Linguist, N. Johansen, B. Gallagher, E. P. Althaber. His honor instructed them to inquire into all acts of violence or illegality committed in this county during the term for which the court is held. Warren et al: demurrer sustained, and three days given to amend complaint. Court adjourned to nine this morning. Beneath the rule of men, entirely great The Shears is mightier than the Strike. Telegraphic Editor. The time is not far distant when there will be a railroad from Astoria to the Capital and from the Capital to connect with the Oregon Pacific in the Minto Pass, thence to connect with the Oregon Short Line at, say Boise City. When this is done then Astoria will be the main terminus of a transcontinental line, and Salem one of the principal stations. Speed the day. Vilette. So say we all of us. About two o'clock yesterday morning an attempt was made to rob the dwelling house of James Vaughn. The burglar succeeded in opening the front door, and while in the act of entering was fired at by Wm. Vaughn, who had been awakened by the noise. The man succeeded in getting away unharmed. This is the second attempt of the kind reported within the last few weeks. Oysters, Oysters, Oysters. at the Astoria Oyster depot; a stev, fry, pan roast, or raw at Frank Fabre's. A Juicy Beefsteak cooked to perfection is what you can get at Frank Fabre's. Furnished Rooms to Rent. Inquire at Mrs. P. J. Goodman's, corner Jefferson and Connelly streets. A fine lot of Silverware just received at Adler's—the old, reliable brand.

Yesterday's Fire.

The fire bell rang at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, and the department responded with the utmost alacrity. The alarm being apparently baseless, the companies returned to their houses. As the members of No. One were standing around the door waiting for the engine to cool off and be hosed, a boy ran down from the hill side to the west, saying that there was a house on fire beyond the bridge. Some thirty men went there with all possible speed, but the fire was burning too fiercely to do anything. Two houses standing together were completely consumed, the one the property of Al. Zetterman, the other belonging to Thos. Dillon. They were at a considerable distance from any other building, and to get water to them was out of the question. The greater part of the furniture and household effects was saved, the entire loss being about $1,200. The fire is said to have caught from the fire which has been burning in that vicinity for the last month. Several times people living in that part of the city have been terrified by the near approach of the fire and have fought it off, up to the present time successfully. What may result in future is a serious question. Dillon's house was occupied by Henry Ferchen, who was lately married, and with his wife is now on a visit to Deep River; he loses nearly everything; there was an insurance of $400 on the house; Zetterman was uninsured. Thos. Shamberlin, while trying to save some furniture, fell from the second story window and narrowly escaped a dreadful death. His hair and eyebrows were badly scorched, and for a time he suffered considerably but is not seriously injured.

Woman Suffrage Rally.

Mrs. A. S. Duniway, the well known lecturer upon equal rights, and editor of the New Northwest is now in the city, arranging for a grand woman suffrage rally, to be held in Liberty Hall on Thursday and Friday evening of this week. We learn that a number of prominent gentlemen of the bench and bar are to favor the meetings with speeches. There will also be plenty of vocal and instrumental music, popular recitations are promised by Edith Conn, the petite electionist of Astoria and Dottie Reavey the child actress of Portland. Mrs. Duniway is quite sanguine of a victory for the pending amendment at the coming June election. She says that the affirmative votes of morality and intelligence being aroused, there is no opposition left but that of vice and ignorance, and she is sure the good men of Oregon are numerous enough to out vote the objectionable elements. For particulars concerning the order of exercises for "rally" see bills over town, and consult to-morrow's ASTORIAN.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a meeting of Temple Lodge held last evening the following resolutions were passed: WHEREAS, The Supreme Grand Master, in His infinite wisdom, has deemed it best to remove from among us our honored brother, Wm. Bochau, therefore be it Resolved, That while we sincerely regret, and deeply mourn the loss of Bro. Bochau, we feel that he has but gone from this imperfect, to that all perfect, glorious and celestial Lodge above, where the Supreme Architect of the universe presides, and bow our heads with due reverence in acquiescence to the decree of "Him who doeth all things well." Resolved, That by the unexpected demise of Bro. Bochau, taken from us in the prime of life, Temple Lodge has received an unexpected shock and sustained an irreparable loss. That the community has lost an honorable and upright member, and will miss an old and valued citizen. Resolved, That our tenderest sympathies are extended to the bereaved family and that we especially sympathize with the orphan children who so deeply mourn the loss of their loving father and assure them that their welfare shall be the special care of Temple Lodge. Resolved, That Temple Lodge Room be draped and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that these resolutions be spread upon the records and a copy of them be sent to our deceased brother's family. Fraternally submitted, G. W. LOEWENBERG, B. VAN DUSEN, P. E. FERCHEN.
