TRUE Temperance

Is not signing a pledge or taking a solemn oath that cannot be kept, because or the non-removal of the cause -liquor. The way to make a man temperate is to kill the desire for those dreading artificial stimulants that carry so many bright intellect to premature graves, and desolation, strife and anhappiness into so many families.

Itisafact! Brown BITTERS, a true non-alco ie tonic, made in Baltiman. Md., by the Brown Cham Company, who are old down gists and in every portaar reliable, will by to ing the craving appeal the drunkard, and by our the nervousness, wealm: and general ill health reus ing from intemperance, do more to promote temperance, in the strictest sense then anyother means now known.

It is a well authenticated fact that many medicines, especially bitters, are nothing butcheap whiskey vilely concocted for use in local option countries. Such is not the case with Brown's IRON BITTERS. Itisa medicine, a cure for weakness and decay in the nervous. muscular, and digestive organs of the body, produc-ing good, rich blood, health and strength. Try one bottle. Price $1.00.

The Lost Colony in Greenland.

An Icelandic man, Eric Rode, the father of the Leit Ericson. who discovered America, discovered Greenland, and returned in 985 with five-and-twenty ships. After that the emigration increased every year. Within a short time, large tracts of country, both in the east and the west, were peopled and settled by the Icelandis or Scandinavian settlers. 'The land's nature and situation divided them into two main colomes, which were called Oster and Vesterbygg den. Between them lay a desert several days' journey long. The chief colony was in Osterbygggden, which always remained the most tiements went up to 190, and the number of churches to twelve, and mumber of churches to twelve, and mumber of churches to twelve, and was before this dreadful entancous disorder. there were also several cloisters attacked him. for nuns and monks. The Greenland redeny described for over Jessey Cry Hours, N. J. 400 years. The terrible ice ramparts which cover the whole pastern coast of Greenland have for hundreds of years turned to la naught the attempts of the heldest navigators to penetrate to that side of the land, where, according to the indications of the old narratives, the former so-called Osterbyggden, with its many fjords and numerous flourishing settlements, seem to have lain. "Perhaps," says this author, in 1826, "some during and experienced Arctic changes occurring with the polar ice, may in the future clear the way for the obtaining of a more positive certainty as to whether any traces exist on the east coast and along the inner fjords of the former settlements." Such an undertaking as this is just worthy undertaking as this is just worthy of Nordenskjold-a Viking hunting up the Vikings.

To prevent the skin from discoloring after a blow or fall, take a little dry starch or arrowroot and moisten it with cold water and lay it on the injured part. This should be done immediately, so as to prevent the action of the air upon the skin. However, it may be applied some hours afterward.

Wonderful Cure of a Lad 12 years old, who for 8 years, from the top of his head to his ankles, was one Mass of Scalis. My son, a lad twelve years of age. Was afficied with the worst form of Ecroma for a period of eig styears. So virulent sas it that from the top of his head to within a low inches of his andles he was one mass of rephs, which refused to yield to any treatment that was strampted. Every femedy that was surgested by friends or physicians was tried in vain. Alloyathy, homoserably, herbs, roots, saltwarer boths, flaxocci positions, soaps, ointments, and in short everythin; that could be done to cradicate the disorder seemed only to aggravate it, and the child's life became a burden to him, and the expense of the various experiments was a constant drain upon our resources.

My wife reading the advertisement of the Cutterna Russmans in one of the duly rapers, readived to make one more attempt at a cure. (The disease was now encreaching thou his face, and seemed incombile.) I cave a reluctant consent to the proposal, and an interview was sought with a funnas lady physician of New York, who made a most there ough examination of the case, and promises My sox, a lad twelve years of age, was af

VARIOUS QUACKS.

Whe-Each with his own Pet Scheme--Cultivate the Field of Human Nature.

There have always been quacks :- legal and medical quacks, Some of them are bland oily fellows who argue and smile the world into believing their favorite bit of humbug Others are pempous and pretentions parasites But they make it pay. Men seem to love to be swindled, stipulating only that it shall be neatly done.

The dear public are equally liberal to the electric and magnetic fraud. This fellow is a genius in his line. He will put a magnetic helt around your waist, a magnetic necklacunder your chin, or fit you, out with an en tire suit of magnetic clothes, warranted to serve the purpose of ordinary garments, and nd at the same time to cure all diseases from whooping-cough to hasty consumption.

Most of these have no more electric or mag etic power about them than resides in we en blankets or in girdles of sackeloth. Only when applied by an expert is electricity of the ightest use as a medicinal agent, and even then its value is grossly over-stated. What is the strongest possible presumptive evidence in favor of a particular remedy? Clearly that it should have been prepared by responsible persons of acknowledged skill in the treat ment of disease. Squarely on this foundation stands BEN-SON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. Enlorsed by 5,000 physicians, pharmacists, drug ists, and chemists, it needs no further apoler nor introduction. It is the one and only rue and tried external application. Quacks fall kinds pay the Capeine the co f their dislike, as Satan is said to hate holy
