Oh, My Back!

That's a common expression and has a world of meaning. How much suffering is summed up in it.

The singular thing about it is, that pain in the back is occasioned by so many things. May be caused by kidney disease, liver complaint, consumption, cold, rheumatism, dyspepsia, overwork, nervous debility, &c.

Whatever the cause, don't neglect it. Something is wrong and needs prompt attention. No medicine has yet been discovered that will so quickly and surely cure such diseases as BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and it does this by commencing at the foundation, and making the blood pure and rich.

Wm. P. Marshall, of Logansport, Indiana, writes: "My wife has for many years been troubled from pain in her back and general debility incident to her sex. She has taken one bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters, and I can truthfully say that she has been so much benefited that she pronounces it the only remedy of many medicines she has tried."

Leading physicians and clergymen use and recommend BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It has cured others suffering as you are, and it will cure you.

Nature and Man.

Unconscious nature takes no heed of human suffering. Her forces are without feeling and sympathy. They inflict pain and death on sentient creatures, such as man and the lower animals, without compunction or remorse, but of course without malicious intent. The philosopher John Stuart Mill, has weakly arraigned nature for her unfeelingness. But, on the whole, the utter indifference and apathy of nature to man and human events constitute her greatest charms to one who has done with what are called final cases. If nature was in constant sympathy with man, where would be her delightful repose and tranquility of her forest solitudes, which are so soothing and medicinal to jaded nerves? As it is, a great nation may be torn and rent by civil war, and its citizens engaged in mutual slaughter, and yet, outside the immediate arenas of conflict, the peace, repose and regular movements of the natural world are entirely undisturbed. The brook bickers down its lonely glen as usual; the river winds quietly through luxurious meadows and past solitary hamlets, villages and cities in gleaming rings and meanders; the morning lights up the earth with its wonted purifying rays, and the red pomp of sunset bates not one iota of its customary splendor; vegetation thrives and the total aspect of earth and sky exhibits not a token of the least recognition of, or sympathy with human calamity or suffering, no matter how general and heartrending it may be. There are what are called seasons of drouth, during which the sky will not relent at the prayers of the husbandman. There are two sides to nature, a good side and a bad side. When the optimist says that is the best of all possible worlds, we find things that make his rose-hued theory somewhat questionable; but, on the other hand, we take no stock in the pessimist's counter doctrine, namely, that this is the worst of all possible worlds. It is all the world that we know about, and, when we are well and prosperous, we find it very much to our taste. That is the sum of the whole matter.—Boston Herald.

Admiral Cournot commander of the French squadron, has already begun operations against Hue by blockading Journaneau, at the mouth of the river, three leagues distant. He will land a force there co-operate with the gunboats. Hue probably will be invested by about the 20th.

General Leib of the Chicago, (Ill.,) Democrat says: "St. Jacobs Oil is the remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia, without any manner of doubt, and people who suffer from these diseases ought to be made acquainted with that fact. Whenever I had occasion to use the Oil I found it all its proprietors claim for it.

SKIN HUMORS

Wonderful Cure of a Lad 12 years old, who for 8 years, from the top of his head to his ankles, was one Mass of Scabs.

My son, a lad twelve years of age, was afflicted with the worst form of Eczema for a period of eight years. So virulent was it that from the top of his head to within a few inches of his ankles he was one mass of scabs, which refused to yield to any treatment that was attempted. Every remedy that was suggested by friends or physicians was tried in vain. Allopathy, homeopathy, herbs, roots, salt-water baths, flaxseed poultices, soaps, ointments, and in short everything that could be done to eradicate the disorder seemed only to aggravate it, and the child's life became a burden to him, and the expense of the various experiments was a constant drain upon our resources.

My wife reading the advertisement of the CUTICURA REMEDIES in one of the daily papers, resolved to make one more attempt at a cure. (The disease was now encroaching upon his face, and seemed incurable.) I gave a reluctant consent to the proposal, and an interview was sought with a famous lady physician of New York, who made a most thorough examination of the case, and promised a cure without the least hesitation by the use of your CUTICURA REMEDIES. In one week there was a marked change: the raw and angry sores began to grow pale and along the outer edges scaled off, and as time wore on they began to disappear entirely, until at the present writing the only vestige is one small spot upon the forearm, scarcely visible and fast disappearing.

Thus after eight years of expense and anxiety, we have the intense satisfaction of seeing the child's skin as fair and smooth as it was before this dreadful cutaneous disorder attacked him.

Sincerely yours,
CHAS. EAYRE HINKLE

HOME COMFORT.

After a Rainy Ride a Country Physician Tells What He Thinks of Some People.

"I wish to gracious some people would learn when they need a doctor and when they don't," exclaimed Dr. E——, as he entered his house in a cosey little village in the interior of the State of New York, after a tedious ride of many miles. "I have been down among the mountains to see a man, who the messenger said, was very sick and not likely to live 'till morning, unless he had immediate help; and found him suffering from a rather sharp attack of colic, which his family might have relieved in ten minutes, if they had a grain of sense and two or three simple remedies in the house. But no; they must remain ignorant as pigs, and when the least ache or pain takes them, send for a doctor whether they ever pay him or not."

"Why, Doctor, what kind of simple remedies, as you call them, do you expect people to keep in the house?" asked his wife, as she poured him a cup of hot tea.

"In this case," answered the Doctor, "if they had only put a BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER on the man's stomach, he would have been all right in an hour, and saved me a dreary ride."

In all ordinary complaints it cures at once. All diseases are eliminated from the system by what may be roughly called expulsion or extraction or by a union of the two processes. Benson's Plaster promotes both. It incites the torpid organs to act, and sends its healing, soothing, influence through the myriad pores of the skin. All other plasters oblige the patient to wait. They give him hope for to-morrow. Benson's plaster gives him help to-day. Which is better, do you think? Buy the CAPCINE and keep it in the house. Price 25 cents.
