

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, AUGUST 26, 1883

"The reign of the common people."

The State is due from San Francisco to-morrow.

The Garlock has arrived at Liverpool 127 days from Astoria.

The railroad from Portland to St. Helena will be in operation about September 15th.

The through salmon train will leave Portland next Thursday, the 30th inst., for New York city.

Religious services will be held at the Y. M. C. A. room this afternoon. Citizens and strangers cordially invited to attend.

Rev. D. D. Ghormley of East Portland will conduct services at the Presbyterian church, morning and evening to-day. Seats free; strangers welcome.

Prof. A. L. Francis is in the city and during the next ten days will make his headquarters at the Occident. Parties wishing pianos tuned can call or send word.

General Sherman and party were given a cordial reception at Vancouver last Friday evening, and at Portland last night he was the recipient of an equally warm greeting.

The box sheet for the sale of reserved seats for Henry Ward Beecher's lecture will be open at Strauss' New York Novelty store at nine o'clock to-morrow morning.

Rev. B. S. McLafferty returned yesterday with his family to make a home in Astoria. He will be heard from his pulpit, that of the First Baptist church, to-day at usual hours of service.

W. D. Pittenger, W. Masters and N. McKinney, of Hillsboro, killed fifteen deer in the Nehalem mountains last week. Another party from the same town killed a buck weighing 250 pounds.

The Oregon school for the blind will commence on Monday, September 3d, the first term of the regular school year. The superintendent is C. E. Moore, and some of his pupils would give $1,000 to see him.

E. C. Holden will continue the auction sale of merchandise at N. Johansen's store at Upper Astoria to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock. A choice lot of crockery and glassware will be disposed of during the sale.

It is with pleasure we notice that Mr. Nathan Cole, Jr., has made application to purchase the N E 1/4 of section No. 30, of township No. 6, north range No. 3 W, Will. Mer. That is the right spirit. Mr. Cole will now grow up with the country.

Mr. George Werner, business manager for F. W. Stechhan, and manager for Rev. Henry Ward Beecher is in the city, and is registered at the Occident. Mr. Werner yesterday made arrangements for a lecture at Occidental Hall next Wednesday evening.

The Longshoremen take an excursion to Knappa on the Clara Parker this morning, leaving Main street wharf at eight o'clock. A band of music goes along. Tickets for the round trip for two, one dollar, can be had at Wm. Edgar's corner Main and Chenamus.

We acknowledge the receipt of a stirring piece of music entitled "Blue Ribbon War Song," words and music by Prof. A. L. Francis, who is now in the city. Some of our Astoria pianists, than whom few are more proficient, will doubtless give the composition voice and expression.

The fact that Gen. Sherman will be in Astoria to-morrow impels the suggestion that he be met and welcomed by a committee. No doubt there are many points of interest here that the general of the army would like to see, and that there are numbers who would like to see the old hero. The matter can be fixed up to-day.

Geo. P. Wheeler, and W. L. Rebb, two gentlemen well and widely known, have associated themselves in partnership, and to-morrow morning begin business in their office in J. W. Hume's new building next to Foard & Stokes. They will transact a general real estate, insurance and collection business, and will satisfactorily conduct all business intrusted to their care.

Portland is enjoying a crescendo of brilliant events; first the visit of the worlds greatest lecturer, Henry Ward Beecher; then the visit of Gen. Sherman who went marching through Georgia nineteen years ago; to be followed by the presence of a throng of distinguished gentlemen on the occasion of the celebration of the driving of the last spike of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Don't fail to take dinner at Roscoe's to-day. Ice Cream served with dinner.

A first-class oyster opener wanted at Roscoe Dixon's.

Ordinance No. 531.

Considerable comment was occasioned yesterday by the arrest about two a. m., of the proprietors of the Astoria Iron Works, the Occident Hotel and the Parker House, for alleged violation of ordinance 531. The offense of the Astoria Iron Works was in repairing the rudder of a boat so that the owner could attend to his business; the night clerk at the Occident had taken money for a night's lodging from some belated traveler, who naturally wanted to go to sleep, and the night clerk at the Parker House was guilty of a similar breach of the peace. In all three cases the amount deposited was returned and the city attorney very properly refused to make any complaint. The officers making the arrest exhibited more zeal than discretion in their action. If the ordinance is to be observed in the strict letter rather than with a view to its spirit and plain intent it will prove a fruitful source of annoyance to worthy and respectable citizens who don't care to be harassed nor annoyed in such manner. People get hungry and sleepy and machinery will break just the same whether the ordinance does or does not exist, and to arrest a machinist, or hotel keeper, argues very poor judgment to say the least.

Railroad for Pacific County.

The latest enterprise that we have to note is the incorporation of the Washington railroad company. The company is incorporated under the laws of Washington Territory, and articles were filed in the Auditor's office August 6th, with the names of Benjamin Hutton, John Wood and Robert Chabot as incorporators. The object of said company is to "build, equip and operate a railway across the portage from Ilwaco to the head of navigation on Shoalwater bay; also to build wharves, depots, warehouses and other necessary structures, and to purchase, sell or lease real estate, or any other property that may be required for the building and operating of said railroad. The capital stock of said company shall be $10,000, divided into 200 shares of $50 each; duration of said company to be fifty years." The above named gentlemen as incorporators are to act as trustees for the first six months. The place of business will be Ilwaco. It will be some little time before active operations will begin, as the company will have to hold meetings for the election of officers, issue stock and have surveys made across the portage. It will probably require until some time in the fall before the construction of the road will be commenced. -Journal.

Henry Ward Beecher.

Next Wednesday evening Astorians will have an opportunity of hearing the world's greatest preacher. This is high praise, but it is the verdict of two continents and the simple announcement that Henry Ward Beecher will lecture here is sufficient without a word of eulogy or comment. An early procuring of seats at Strauss' will obviate trouble in the rush as the time draws nigh.

It was Franklin who advised a young man to empty his purse into his head, for no man could steal knowledge, and no investment of money could be better. In the same spirit may the advice be given to those desirous of securing a business education to go to the long established Columbia Commercial College of Portland of which Prof. W. S. James is the principal. Send for a copy of the College Journal, giving full information.

No. 1, Vol. 1, of the Pacific Journal, published at Oysterville, is on our desk. It is a neat six-column folio, and starts out well. In his salutatory Mr. Bowen says:

"We are not here for the good of our health, the magnificent climate nor the surf-bathing. Our object in locating in this county is money, and money we intend to have."

This is brief but comprehensive. The new paper has our best wishes for its success, and we welcome it as a valuable coadjutor in calling attention to the advantages of the magnificent country in which it is published.

Upon the arrival of the cable to cross the Columbia, all things will be in readiness to establish the United States signal station at Fort Canby, with the office at or near the light-house. It will be a station of the first-class, and a cautionary signal station for the display of danger signals, and will give notice of the approach of storms coming up or down the coast. The day signal will be a red flag with black square and a red light at night. The flag and storm lantern will be hoisted to the top of a staff so that it can be seen for some distance at sea. In addition to this, the station will be equipped with a code of international signals and flags, and will be able to communicate with ships of all nations by means of the code, and can send and receive messages from ships outside the Cape. The daily dispatches from the Cape will be published in THE ASTORIAN.

For Rent. A part of a dwelling house. Enquire at this office for particulars.

Four days will be spent in the park, and the party will leave the end of the Yellowstone park branch Sunday, the 23d, for St. Paul.

Port Charges. The Kate F. Troop sailed yesterday afternoon for Liverpool. Her cargo is worth over a quarter of a million dollars. She loaded at Astoria. For the benefit of the editor of the Walla Walla Union it may be advisable to state that in conversation with Capt. Parker of the Kate F. Troop last Friday evening, that gentleman stated that the entire expenses of all port charges on this vessel would not exceed $3,000. This statement like all others of its class is susceptible of careful proof, and is sufficient answer to our friend who in his Walla Walla zancum champions the cause of the Sound to the delight of the papers of that region who joyfully reproduce his arguments, but are strangely remiss in favoring their readers with the facts in the case as stated in THE ASTORIAN.
