

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON:

FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1883

L. P. FISHER, Rooms 20 and 21, Merchants Exchange Building, is our only authorized agent in San Francisco, and any contracts made by him will be recognized.

The Plymouth Pastor.

The lecture by Beecher last Wednesday evening at Occidental Hall has given those who were there and those who were not, something to think of.

When one thinks of Beecher, the little petty mists of calumny and injustice that float around his feet are dispelled, and we see only the great man whose soul is full of genius and lofty thought.

A MOVEMENT is now on foot in England, says the Grocer and Canner, to induce an increase in fish consumption.

The American Tinned Plate association has been formed to urge an increased duty on tin and tinned plates.

Mr. FREEMAN, in his recent "Impressions of America," remarks upon the use of the word "railroad" in America for the English "railway."

By the explosion of the steamer Rieerdale at New York, last Wednesday, fifty unfortunate passengers lost their lives by scalding and drowning.

The Georgia legislature recently passed a registration bill, which stands as a singular anomaly in the political legislation of a body which has not in it more than six Republicans.

The Pacific Churchman does not believe that Christianity is waning, and statistically proves its progress in numbers and in increasing faith.

The work of dredging the Panama canal is progressing at the rate of 10,000 cubic yards per day.

ARRANGEMENTS for the celebration of the opening of the Northern Pacific road on next Monday at St. Paul, are completed.

On the day the telegraph operators struck for higher wages, the stock of the Western Union Telegraph company was 80 1/2.

The new postal notes will be ready for circulation September 3d. They are now being secured in books of 500 each.

There are 120 newspapers conducted by colored men in the United States, and devoted to their interests.
