

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1883

The Miles goes to Tillamook next Wednesday.

Over 400 pioneers will leave on the N. P. R. excursion train.

The Columbia is due this morning; the State sails for S. F. to-day.

The Seaside visitors have nearly all returned, a few going eastward daily.

Prael Bros. wish those indebted to them to call around and pay what they owe.

There are twenty-seven rooms full of newspaper correspondents in Portland.

It is thought that the general average on the Queen will be from 30 to 35 per cent.

C. H. Cooper, proprietor of the I. X. L. goes below on to-day's steamer for fall goods.

B. W. Robson, of the Knappton Packing company, goes to Oakland, Cal., on to-day's steamer.

The News thinks the 1,000 Chinese should have been admitted to the Portland celebration yesterday.

The showers cleared the smoke away in good time, to let the visitors see what kind of a country we have.

The tug Brenham which was badly scarred in helping pull off the Queen last Wednesday is being repaired.

Paul C. Bium, the energetic advance agent of Howe's Bush St. Theatre Co., arrived from Portland yesterday afternoon.

The Polaris has again changed hands, and now comes out in the Hesperian. It carries a heavy load in Astoria and his "Reminiscences."

There is no lack of tonnage in the Columbia this season. Several ship owners decline charters in hopes of getting better figures farther on in the season.

After the 30th inst., in such a city as Portland, which has postal delivery, it will cost as much to send a letter across the street as to send it to New York.

The Nairnshire, previously reported, and the British ship Shenir, 1173, of Glasgow, Sterling master, arrived in yesterday. The Mt. Washington will probably be towed in to-day.

The cable that is to be laid between Forts Canby and Stevens is expected from San Francisco this week. It is four miles in length, and when in place vessels can be signaled and reported from outside.

"Our American Cousin" will be played at Occidental Hall to-morrow night by the Bush St. Theatre Co., of San Francisco; George Holland appearing as "Lord Dundreary." Reserved seats at the New York Novelty store.

Railroad operations have begun in earnest on the Siskiyou and soon steady progress will be made on both ends of the big tunnel. On the north end the Burlington drills are in 100 feet, while the large cut at the south end has been finished and boring is under way.

Henry Villard and party arrived at Portland at an early hour yesterday morning; the city was filled with strangers, the utmost difficulty being in some instances occasioned in getting accommodations. The parade took place at one o'clock yesterday afternoon.

At a meeting of Albert H. & L. No. 1, held at their rooms last Monday evening, the following officers were elected: President, J. O. Bozorth; secretary, C. Brown; treasurer, J. Tuttle; foreman, F. B. Elbersson; 1st asst., C. P. Moffit; 2nd asst., F. T. Jordan; members of board of delegates, E. D. Curtis, F. J. Taylor, J. E. Thomas.

Astoria merchants are ordering goods in quantity from eastern manufacturers and dealers. Already several new enterprises are spoken of, and the consequent effect of the opening of railroad communication with "the States" will be increased competition in different lines of business. In this respect as in many others, the doctrine of the "survival of the fittest" will be found orthodox.

The Oregonian of the 9th issued a twelve page edition giving a full account of the celebration at the scene of driving the last spike, and a history of the Northern Pacific railroad from its inception to its completion. Yesterday's Standard contains sixteen pages of valuable information concerning Washington and Oregon. We are sorry that the proprietor saw fit to omit all mention of Clatsop county in writing up all the other counties of the state.

Ladies Buying for Fall Wear should see those handsome goods and trimmings at the Empire Store.

Rosecoe Dixon's new eating house is now open. Everything has been fitted up in first-class style, and his well known reputation as a caterer assures all who like good things to eat, that at his place they can be accommodated.

To-Morrow's Visit.

At a meeting of the chamber of commerce last evening it was decided to give the visitors who will arrive here to-morrow afternoon as good a reception as the short time they propose to stay will allow. It was the original intention to have an elaborate reception, but after the chamber had communicated by telegraph with Mr. Villard and Mr. Prescott it was found that the stay of the visitors would be exceedingly brief, so that the greater part of the proposed celebration must be omitted. However steamers can meet the guests and a welcome can be extended to them none the less hearty that it is necessarily of an extempore nature. Last evening a finance committee was appointed consisting of J. H. D. Gray, John A. Devlin, and J. O. Bozorth. A committee of arrangements was also appointed, consisting of J. D. Merryman, E. C. Holden, F. J. Taylor, M. C. Crosby, and S. D. Adair. The finance committee will report to the committee of arrangements at two o'clock this afternoon, and both committees will report at a meeting of the chamber at eight o'clock this evening.

Our American Cousin.

Geo. Holland will appear at Occidental Hall to-morrow evening in the famous character of "Lord Dundreary" in "Our American Cousin." Mr. Holland is supported by Miss Constance Muriella and a strong comedy company. The Philadelphia North American of a recent date says: "Our American Cousin" was played at the Walnut last night with Mr. Holland as "Dundreary." It has been expected that he would do himself credit, for Mr. Holland is too competent and careful an actor to fail in anything which he cares to undertake, but his "Dundreary" was really so fresh and enjoyable that it took the spectators by surprise. It was as far as possible from being a mere copy of the original. Between the humor of Mr. Holland and Mr. Sothorn there is an essential difference. The latter had a singular keen sense of the ridiculous and unequalled capacity for its realization. The humor of George Holland is more genial and human. It springs from the heart. The effects he produces do not spring from the superficial playfulness of the professional joker and wit. They have a deeper source. They are due to a sympathetic and truthful appreciation of the contradictions and eccentricities of which human nature is capable. Thus his "Dundreary" is more real, is more of a man, than the "Dundreary" of Mr. Sothorn. The latter was never anything more than a laughable absurdity, whose possible existence could not be conceived by any effort of the imagination. But in Mr. Holland's hands, "Dundreary" becomes a potential man, and one for whom the spectator can hardly fail to entertain a liking, so skillfully does the actor indicate the good qualities of heart which underlie the eccentricities of his demeanor.

A two-weeks old paper in Manzano, New Mexico, is struggling under the name, but obnoxious name of the Gringo and Greaser. Its editor boasts that it is "the oldest and best paper in Valencia county." It is printed entirely in italics. It hurls to the people not to send in their subscriptions and money so fast, as it keeps the editor up too late nights attending to the Inere. If the editor doesn't die, the paper may live.

Could not a better word than "consumption" be coined to express the use of articles of wear, diet, etc? Consumption is a bad disease, to be dreaded by all. Fire may consume a house or a hay stack. But the idea of a delicate girl consuming dishes of ice cream and watermelon is awful. Little better is it to speak, in market phrase, of ladies becoming consumers of fans, hoop skirts and face powders, or of men being consumers of suspenders, socks, neckties, corkcrows and shoe blacking. Now is a good time for the linguist to step to the front.

Young or middle aged men suffering from nervous debility, loss of memory, premature old age, as the result of bad habits, should send three stamps for Part VII of Dime Series pamphlets. Address WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

Across the River. The Washington packing company, at Cosmopolis, will run two traps and seven boats during the fall run of salmon.

Last week John Briscoe sold eight acres of land, about a mile west of Ilwaco, near the beach, for the sum of $1,600—$200 per acre—to T. A. Davis, of the firm of Hodge, Davis & Co., of Portland.

There is much need of a postoffice above Woodard's Landing, on the Willapa. At present settlers living thirty miles above the Landing have to come there after their mail. It has been suggested that a point on Fern prairie, twelve miles above, would meet the approbation of nearly everyone.

The Aberdeen cannery, at the mouth of the Willakaw, commenced operations Monday. They will have a force of eighteen boats—thirty-six men—fishing for them. Dan Markham and Fred Colbert have the piling ready to put in traps. The run will probably last about ten weeks.

The oyster business of Shoalwater bay begins to assume some of its old proportions. Large quantities are shipped to San Francisco by every lumber-laden schooner that leaves this port. The Favorite is constantly engaged in carrying oysters to the head of the bay, from whence they are hauled across the portage and shipped from Ilwaco.

There is a disposition on the part of many citizens of this county to question the justice of allowing a railroad a large tract of land as an indemnity grant when the same railroad does not pass over one foot of the adjoining county. It is a well-known fact that the Northern Pacific includes within its grant some of the very best land in Pacific county. When a county is able to derive a small benefit from a railroad, even if it be very slight, it might possibly afford to donate one-fourth of its entire area, as this county is compelled to do. Situated as Pacific county is, unfortunately, no perceptible benefit, other than that consequent upon the development of the territory at large, can result to it from the Northern Pacific railroad's wholesale land grab.—Journal.
