

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1933

The Portland which has been loading at Westport came down yesterday and will finish at Knappton.

The Columbia arrived in yesterday: the State sailed for San Francisco. The Noirmarine started up stream.

The next regular meeting of the Presbytery of Oregon will convene in Calvary Church, Portland, Or., Monday, October 1st.

Beecher's views on matters and things do not please the San Francisco papers. The Chronicle in cruel comment charges him with being "superficial."

The British ship Edalae, from Liverpool July 26th, for the Columbia, was spoken on the 4th inst., in latitude 43 deg. north, longitude 12 deg. west, partially dismasted.

Among our visitors yesterday were Mr. Geo. Holland, the celebrated actor and leading comedian in the troupe that plays at Occidental Hall this evening, and T. Henderson Boyd, manager of the company.

E. C. Clayton, a competent and practical draughtsman, and a pen-man of more than ordinary skill, has secured office room at Bozorth & John's real estate rooms, and is ready for business.

The performance at Occidental Hall this evening will be one of sterling merit; considerable curiosity is excited to see Mr. Holland's impersonation of the part that Southern made famous—"Lord Dandrenary."

A break in wheat charters is reported from San Francisco. The Bohemia, a 1,600 ton wooden ship, has been chartered for Liverpool at 45 shillings and the Poonah, a 1,200 ton iron ship, for Cork at 52 1/2 shillings.

C. H. Bain, long and favorably known in the cash and door business in this city, has repurchased his former mill property and advertises an extensive assortment of work which he manufactures in the best style.

It is reported that the Southern Pacific Railroad Company has contracted to take 2,000 tons of wheat through to Liverpool from San Francisco, at eleven dollars a ton. The rate seems incredibly low, and it established will send every cent of California wheat trundling through Arizona.

The fire alarm at one o'clock yesterday afternoon was caused by the issuing of a dense volume of smoke from a stable in the rear of Mr. Crosby's residence opposite Occidental Hall. Two streams of water were being directed in a few minutes. The fire was occasioned by a couple of vagrant boys with cigarettes.

It is estimated that this year Washington Territory will send about 335,000,000 feet of lumber, 200,000 cases of salmon, 5,000,000 bushels of wheat, 3,000,000 of oats, 100,000 bushels of potatoes, 200,000 tons of coal, 200,000 pounds of hops, and 2,500,000 pounds of wool, besides a large amount of fruit.

Chas. A. Campbell and bride were among the passengers on the Columbia yesterday morning. Mr. Campbell was married on the 5th, in Eureka, Humboldt Co., Cal., and comes here to make his home. He received the hearty congratulations of his friends, and when the old acquaintances at the Horton house and elsewhere in San Diego, Cal., hear of his marriage he will doubtless receive a shower of good wishes.

It is particularly desired that a sufficient number delay occupying their seats this evening at the theatre till the first act is about half through, as it adds so materially to the comfort of the audience and the ability of the performers. If those who usually vary the performance in the rear would bring along a couple of tin pans and a bunch of fire crackers it would also vary the monotony and could be no less objectionable than the yells and whistles which form the accustomed prelude to the play.

If the Portland telegraphic agent of the San Francisco press has no sense he should consult some one up there who is not wholly devoid of justice. Under date of the 8th he sent a dispatch to San Francisco concerning the C. D. Bryant, conveying the idea that at the time that vessel struck she had a pilot on board, and that everyone knows she had not, and that it was not until she had been on the sands three hours that pilot Olsen went on board. That precious bit of "news" is from the same source that caused a dispatch to be sent from Portland on July 10th, saying that all was fear and trembling at Astoria, and that 300 men were marching from upper town to burn the city.

House Wanted For a small family. Address "B," this office.

The First Shipment Of Boots and Shoes from eastern manufacturers to Astoria, via the Northern Pacific, will arrive this week, for I. J. Arvoje.

A Young Traveler. When the Columbia left here on her last San Francisco trip she carried away a lone passenger of an unusually tender age. While lying at the dock, the little four-year-old son of P. Foley in some way managed to get on board, and not till the steamer was half way to the bar was he discovered. The stewardess took charge of the little fellow whose chief concern was the fact that he had no hat, and it is not probable that any of the Columbia's passengers enjoyed the trip more thoroughly than he. The second day out the passengers made up a purse of $30, and when the steamer arrived in San Francisco the money was handed the steward in whose care the little fellow was left with injunctions to get him a nice suit of clothes. Yesterday morning when the Columbia fired her gun, the young traveler was on deck, and on being restored to his anxious parents he compositely began an account of his 1,000 mile trip to the metropolis, and displayed sundry gifts from the kind officers who took the utmost care of him.

The young man made himself at home in San Francisco. The Call says: "Harbor policemen Clinton and Dillon went to the steamer Columbia yesterday upon her arrival from Oregon, and took possession of a four-year-old boy named Arthur T. Foley, who went aboard the steamer at Astoria. He was not discovered till out to sea, when the stewardess took him in charge. The distracted parents telegraphed to this city for the police to look out for him, some one in Astoria having seen the boy aboard the vessel. The little fellow is bright, and independence can be seen in his every action. Clinton took him to the Chief's office, where he made himself at home by rummaging over the private papers, spilling ink on a prominent detective's pantaloons, and passing remarks about things in general. The Chief, being unable to stand it longer, ordered the boy taken out. Clinton, taking a fancy to the youngster, took him to his own home. On the cars he proposed to go on the platform, where he could see the town, and not gaining permission to do so he helped himself to a handful of the officer's flowing beard. The "cars going without horses" greatly interested and mystified the small Webfoot, and so great was his delight with street-car riding that he could with difficulty be induced to get off. Arriving at the house, the boy immediately took possession, and when Clinton left, he was out in the yard riding the officer's billie goat, and the boy's arm was a pet hen, and his voice could be heard for a distance of four blocks. The little fellow is unincumbered, and has no desire to go home. He will be sent back by the next steamer."

At a meeting of the committee on finance and committee of arrangements at the rooms of the chamber of commerce last evening, in reference to the reception of the visitors to-day, both committees made satisfactory reports. The uncertainty as to the arrival of the visitors made final action on the part of the committee somewhat indefinite. It was however decided that there be two reception committees, the one to consist of the chamber of commerce as a body, with Prest. Bowly as spokesman, the other, consisting of Messrs. Case, Berry, Elnore, Halloran and Kinney to go on the Gov. Newell to meet the visitors previous to their arrival should they come. It is probable that the programme which included two visits to Astoria will be carried out, but it was impossible to secure telegraphic communication with Portland last evening.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish-brown spots on face or body, frequent headache or dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue coated, you are suffering from "torpid liver," or "biliousness." In many cases of "liver complaint," only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases Dr. Pare's "Golden Medical Discovery" has no equal, as it effects perfect and radical cures. At all drug stores.

Council Proceedings. At the last meeting of the city council Tuesday evening, a petition from citizens asking for a street lamp corner Squemoqua and Washington sts., was referred to street committee.

A communication from J. G. Hustler, asking extension of time to collect city taxes, was filed. From C. H. Williamson in reference to city map, was referred. From Astoria street railway company accepting franchise and conditions of ordinance No. 549, was filed. From the mayor of the city vetoing an ordinance for closing certain houses at midnight was filed. The committee on public property recommending erection of street lamp as requested by petition was read and adopted. Reports of police judge, street superintendent, and sexton, for August, were read and referred.

An ordinance requiring restaurants, bar rooms, etc., to close from midnight to 5 A. M., which had been vetoed by the mayor, was placed upon its passage, the veto being, ayes, none; nays, Cooper, Carruthers, Johns and Trenchard, so the veto was declared sustained.

An ordinance extending the time to collect taxes for 1933 to October 14, 1933, was passed under suspension of the rules.

An ordinance authorizing the street committee to contract with the Astoria gaslight company was read first and second times and referred. Ordinances forfeiting the licenses of George Hill and Henry Wiseman & Co., were read first and second times and referred. An ordinance requiring restaurants, bar-rooms, drinking shops, variety shows, theaters, public dance houses and places of public amusement to close from midnight to 5 A. M., was read first and second times.

The following claims were ordered paid: C. H. Williamson, $40; Jno. Holton, $29.58; Gill & Clinton, $200.95; W. J. Barry $10; T. Eccles, $7.50; J. Mohl, $54.90; J. G. Hustler, $103.50; C. L. Parker, $67.40; H. Wentz, $15; W. B. Headington, $163; Job. Ross, $76.20; H. B. Parker, $111.10; C. S. Wright, $94.10; T. Dealy, $32.25; R. Dealey, $49.45; M. M. Gilman, $65.40; Geo. Flavel, $338; S. Browning, $9; T. Logan, $75; C. Boelling, $163.50; Morey & Co., $123; E. Johnson, $3; A. L. Carlow, $21; A. McLean, $15.90; E. Quinn, $30.

The Portland Celebration. The reception of the last spike party at Portland last Tuesday, in part of numbers and display is said to be unequalled in the history of the state. A grand stand had been erected upon which most of the distinguished visitors were given seats while the procession which was of great length filed by. At the close of this portion of the programme the literary exercises began at the pavilion which was densely crowded. Speeches of a most complimentary nature were made and responded to. The address of welcome was delivered by Congressman George. On the subject of the improvement of the Columbia river bar, Mr. George said:

We need, however, increased facilities down the river to its mouth by water and by rail; and the permanent improvement of the bar of the Columbia is of transcendent importance. Nearly all of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, and countries engaged in through international travel and traffic are directly interested. Its capacity for extensive and lasting improvement is greater than that of Sandy Hook, the Delaware or the Mississippi. While at the entrance of the Golden Gate there is much deeper water over its bar than at any great commercial city of the eastern states—in fact more than at most of the leading commercial cities of the world—namely, thirty-four feet at high tide—yet the Columbia, whenever her two channels shift into one, exceeds even that magnificent depth. The Vancouver chart of 1791 shows one channel and nearly thirty-five feet over the bar, and the chart of 1841 nearly thirty-four feet, the intermediate charts showing two channels, and of course only depths approximating present soundings.

The depth of water on the bar has been exceptionally good in the past, and can be easily made so again. We are on the dividing line between inland and ocean and although we are destined through the completion of your wonderful railroad system to become a great railway center, yet the importance of our water ways cannot be forgotten. At the close of the speechmaking which extended till five o'clock there was an intermission to enable the reception committee to take the guests around the city and in the evening a concert was given at the Pavilion. There were no accidents, and the newspapers report everything has having passed off pleasantly and successfully. The foreign guests, comprising a large delegation, will leave Portland on the Wide West and Thompson at nine o'clock this morning on a visit to Astoria, and will probably get here about half past three this afternoon.

Sweetly Spoiled. The fall fishing opened with one of the disgustingly disagreeable features which have become familiar as connected with attempts to can Sacramento-river fish in this city any time from two days to two weeks after they are taken from the water. The steamer Stockton came in from the river on Tuesday with 8,000 salmon aboard. Of this amount about 5,000 were found to be so rotten as to make their removal from the wharf about as pleasant an experience as a midsummer inspection of a glue factory. We are informed that the steamer was for a most superb affair, and we took it for granted, not caring to boast of a more intimate acquaintance.

They were left upon the wharf to contest the palm with the various other odors so abundant there, until the market inspector and the wharfinger threw up the sponge and ordered them off. When a wharfinger throws up his hands it is time to stop taking testimony. These fish were afterwards seen on their way down the bay, driving a column of sewer gas before them. We know of at least one packer who will regret not having been able to put them up and label them Columbia packed. These fish are said to have been taken at least a week before the season opened. This is the usual thing—patrol or no patrol. The strife is to have them in the market on the first day when prices are high. The rub opened good, though not so large as last year. It has fallen off considerably, and is now not so large. Sacramento fall pack is quotable at $1.05@1.12 1/2 f. o. b. cars, but no sales are reported at these figures.—Cal. Grocer and Cannier.
