No Whiskey!

Brown's Iron Bitters is one of the very few tonic medicines that are not composed mostly of alcohol or whiskey, thus becoming a fruitful source of intemperance by promoting a desire for rum.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is guaranteed to be a nonintoxicating stimulant, and it will, in nearly every case, take the place of all liquor, and at the same time absolutely kill the desire for whiskey and other intoxicating beverages.

Rev. G. W. RICE, editor of the American Christian Review, says of Brown's Iron

> Cin., O., Nov. 16, 1881. Gents: - The foolish wasting of vital force in business, pleasure, and vicious indul gence of our people, makes your preparation a necessity; and if applied, will save hundreds who resort to saloons for temporary recuperation.

Brown's Iron Bitters has been thoroughly tested for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, weakness, debility, overwork, rheumatism, neuralgia, consumption, liver complaints, kidney troubles, &c., and it never fails to render speedy and permanent relief.

SLIGHT ODDS.

A Little Story with a Large Moral -One Man who Knew his Own Business.

"No. my dear," said the venerable keeper f a country store to a timid little girl whose send scarcely came up to the level of the counter. "No, my dear, we haven't any red flannel, but we have some first rate New Orleans molasses." Softly hinting that she didn't think that would answer the purpose quite as well, the child went her way in reh of the article she wanted

"Have you BENSON'S CAPCINE PLAS-TERS?" asked a gentleman of a certain druggist whose name could be given were it desired. "I am troubled just now with a touch of my old friend, the lumbage, and the Benson's Plaster seems to go to the spot almost as on as it touches the skin."

"Not at present." replied the druggist, genially "but, we have lots of plasters just as good. There is Allcock's, the Capsicum and others-won't one of them do as well?" "My dear sir," retorted the gentleman with a slight show of temper, "I say nothing against those articles, but I am a business man, and always ask for precisely what I want, and for nothing else. I may enlighter you, however, when I say that sometime ago for another disease, of which the Capcine has since cured me, I tried all those you mention with no appreciable benefit. They are inefficient, every one of them, the meanest act of the proprietors of some of them being this that they make plasters with similar sound ing names to deceive the unwary into believ-ing they are the same thing. Experience taught me the difference. I'll go to the next man in your line. Good day." Bo on poar guard against imitations. The genuine has the word CAPCINE out cleanly in the middle of the plaster. What Pa Said.

Five or six couples had been invited in to play cards and listen to music, and peaches had been passed with other refreshments. The party was just ready to break up when the terror of the family entered the parlor and called out: "There, pa, what did ma tell

"The "governor" probably knew what was coming, but before be could get the youngster out of the way he shot off the other barrel with: "Ma said if we bought clingstone peaches we'd save at least half, and we have!"

"Nature," says Goethe, "will be reported. All things are engaged in writing their own history. The planet and the pebble go attended by their shadows; the rolling rock leaves its scratches on the mountain; the river its channel in the soil; the animal its bones in the stratum; the fern leaf its modest epitaph in the coal; the falling drop makes its sculpture in the sand or stone. Not a foot slips in the snow or along the ground but prints, in characters more or less lasting, a map of its march. The air is full of sounds, the sky of to-kens, the ground of all memoranda, I can say that I am caret, and pronounce my case the most remarkable on record. prints, in characters more or less and signatures, subjects covered with hints which speak to the intelligent."

In Iowa there is a woman running for school superintendent against her husband. The husband was nominated by the Republicans and the wife by the Democrats. This is woman's rights with a vengeance, but however the result, of the election, the office will be kept in the family.
