

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1883.

It is expected that the Portland-Kalama line will be in operation by November 1st.

The evening service in all the churches will begin this evening at 7 o'clock instead of 7:30 as heretofore.

The run of fall salmon at Cosmopolis is reported good—seventy-five to the boat, is what the Fidelle reports.

"God or Nature—Which?" is the subject of the Rev. Mr. MacLafferty's lecture at the Baptist church tonight.

L. A. Loomis raised 1000 bushels of oats this season. It will take all of that and 1500 bushels more to feed his horses.

The Council of Chosen Friends will meet tomorrow in the hall of the Knights of Pythias, on business of importance.

The public school in district No. 1 opens to-morrow. Temporary provision has been made for the pupils at Liberty Hall.

The German Evangelical Reformed congregation will have divine service at the Baptist church at 3 P. M. Rev. John Gantenbein, pastor.

A telegram from Mr. and Mrs. Kidd, who left Portland last Sunday, says they arrived at Minneapolis, Minn., on Thursday morning.

Major Mac Murray will supervise the building of new barracks at Fort Canby, the contract for which was let to a Portland carpenter last week.

The son of Vanderbilt is about to enter the newspaper business. The old man can probably stand it for awhile, but even a Vanderbilt's income has its limits.

There are messages at the W. U. Telegraph office for the following persons: Constantine Amourance, Mrs. Daverson, Lai Gin Chung & Co., J. D. Hurst & Co.

Some fine salmon-trout are received from the mouth of Lewis river, and from a point opposite come duck and snipe of fine flavor. Teal seem to be scarce as yet.

The official report of the inquiry to the Forest Queen near Tacoma, indicates that the tug Hops, which had held her, lacked power to tow her, which necessitated letting the bark go, when she drifted ashore.

The plats of two suburban additions have been filed in Col. Spedden's office—one an addition to the town of Alderbrook, the other being called Summit addition, located east of the cemetery—a home beyond the grave.

Much surprise is expressed in the discovery that Eastern brewers use hemlock bark in manufacturing beer. There is no apparent inconsistency. What will make good leather must necessarily exercise a preservative influence on the stomach.

"John has got the stch." Omit "got." "Have signifies to be in possession of anything. Get signifies to obtain possession. When one has got anything he ceases getting it, and from that time has it."—Western Leader.

And yet there exists no reason why the editor of the Leader should not extend a certain amount of sympathy to poor John.

Lieutenants Greene and Allen went to Fort Canby yesterday, returning last evening. The telegraph line works well. Lieut. Allen goes to Cape Flattery to-morrow to put in a similar signal service station at Tatoosh, a small island about three-quarters of a mile from the shore. Vessels arriving off that coast will be reported at Seattle.

A most ridiculous clause in the school law, where it speaks of teachers' examinations, is that no applicant for a certificate shall pay a fee unless successful; thus making the fee depend upon the ability of the applicant, when, as any one knows that ever tried it, it is more difficult to examine an ignorant applicant than a proficient one.

The Helicon arrived in ballast from Australia yesterday. It is about a year since this fine vessel was here from New York with railroad material, clearing on her outward voyage with lumber for Australia. The Shear is ready for sea; the Miles arrived in from Gray's Harbor yesterday afternoon; the Melanthos arrived in from San Francisco; the State is due to-day.

Reward. $100 reward will be paid by "Jeff" for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who stole ducks from the front of his restaurant yesterday. JEFF.

Life Saving Service.

A San Francisco dispatch says: Interest in the live saving service has been considerably accelerated by recent disasters on the northern coast. The question of adequately supplying the wants of service on the coast is interesting prominent merchants, who, in a number of cases, have conversed with Major T. J. Blakeney on the subject, especially those who were passengers on the Queen at the time the guests of the railroad were on the way north, and who are loud in praises of the services rendered by the Cape Disappointment station. They have interested themselves in an extension of the service on the coast. The recommendation made by Major Blakeney for an increase of stations in Oregon and Washington Territory and their full equipment with crews, boats and machinery, is still pending before the department at Washington, but before being carried out must be sanctioned by congress, and it is to that extent dependent upon the exertions of the Pacific coast senators. His idea is that another station should exist in the vicinity of the entrance to the Columbia river some twelve miles from the present station, on the opposite side of the shore. The boards of trade of Portland, Seattle and this city are expected to consider the matter.

The British flag ship Swift accompanied by the man-of-war Seymour, left Victoria last Friday, and will probably cross in to-day. From here they go to San Francisco.

The solid men of Montesano, W. T., are moving in the matter of having a city government. And so it goes. One season, an almost unbroken wilderness; the next, a settlement, then a village, then a city, then "rings," then "jobs," and "ins," and "outs," and contracts and mayors, and all sorts of shenanigans, and a demand for a "reform," and the game goes on.

The wharves of the Portland Flouring Mill company below Albina are very near completed. They occupy a water front of 500 feet, 200 feet deep. There are also two docks, each 200 feet long by 90 deep, with upper and lower floor. Three railroad tracks have been laid on the wharves, connecting with the Northern Pacific, Paynes & Smith are doing the job, and the entire cost of construction will amount to upwards of $50,000.—Standard.

The recent census of Washington Territory as returned by counties is as follows: King, 18,281; Whitman, 9173; Walla Walla, 8005; Clark, 6211; Pierce, 6177; Columbia, 5139; Garfield, 5090; Spokane, 5000; Lewis & Clark, 4650; Kluckitlat, 4070; Whatcom, 3668; Yakima, 3387; Thurston, 2700; Jefferson, 2350; Kitsap, 2065; Cowitz, 2029; Snohomish, 1698; Pacific, 1268; Chehalis, 1290; San Juan, 1089; Wahkiakum, 1014; Stevens, 780; Island, 777; Mason, 656; Clallam, 553; Skamania, 537.

Oystering is the principal business and the men are very busy getting ready for the winter's trade. From 100 to 200 sacks of 100 pounds each was the weekly shipment for September. Shipments will increase as the season advances. Oysters are bought by residents here from all parts of the bay and reserved for winter shipping, as this is a central point and some of the best oyster ground lies near here; but the main reason is that this is one of the best harbors in all kinds of wind. A deep channel only 200 yards from shore, enables boats to get here at any stage of tide. The mud flats between shore and the channel is just what the oysterman needs to keep their boats on while oystering. Oysters, are, apparently, in as good order as ever before.—Bay Center Corr. Pacific Journal.

Eastern Oregon and Washington papers express dissatisfaction regarding the management of the railroad. They are finding out that interest on bonds entails putting on the traffic "all it will stand." The Walla Walla Statesman says: "With a competition between three or more transcontinental lines we could feel safe enough, but with a combination of them all under a pool, this agreement simply means that the interest on a greater outlay must be paid by the patrons of the road. We assuredly must pay a tariff as the traffic will allow, and still more. For where we originally paid in tariff under one road system the profits or interest upon the capital invested, we must now pay such an additional amount as will pay the interest on all the transcontinental roads, and that, we find, is enormous."

New Stock of Mouldings. Of all kinds: Sash, Doors, etc., and a fine stock of finishing woods, at C. H. Bain's.

The U. S. Salary List.

This book is prepared by Henry N. Copp, a lawyer of Washington, D. C. All the government salaries are given from President Arthur's $50,000, to postmasters with $500, officials of the treasury, interior, war and navy departments, custom houses, post offices, and fully 20,000 federal offices arranged by states and territories. Specimen examination questions for admittance to the civil service throughout the country are added. The price of the book is 35 cents. Every citizen who expects his senator or representative to offer him a government position, by possessing this manual can decide at once whether to accept or decline the offer. It may save candidates from declining fat offices through wrong information. Should the Democratic party carry the next presidential election every Democrat in the country would want this book without a doubt.

Dinnie Acquitted. The examination of Donald Dinnie, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was concluded in the Police Court yesterday, and the defendant discharged. Judge Moreland, in rendering his decision, stated that the more he looked into the law the more convinced he became that this case didn't come within the statute. There had been no pretense in writing, the agreement being for something that was to occur in the future, and unfortunately, there was no law to punish a person for simple lying. The Judge further remarked that if all show men were compelled to fulfill their published programs, cases of this kind would be more numerous.—Standard, 13th.

Take It Back. Let me give you in a word a few facts in regard to the business of Portland from the forthcoming annual report of the board of trade. The pack of salmon amounted to 629,000 cases this year, valued at $2,769,000. This is done by Portland capital along the Columbia, as described in a previous letter.

The above is an extract from a Portland letter to the Springfield Republican. The Oregonian complacently copies it, and tacitly endorses the truth of the statement. Ignorance is always excusable, but our Portland contemporary certainly knows better than the eastern correspondent that the above is a — — mistake.

We noticed the ocean steamer Oregon on her up trip Wednesday put on full steam and strokesome distance below the bar in order to carry her over. It was very evident she just barely made it as we noticed her masts tremble, that plainly showed she scraped along upon the sand. Had she run slowed down she would have got fast.—St. Helens Mst.
