SEEK

health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

Manfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1883. Gentlemen—I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and great soreness on my knees, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite.

I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and flesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.

JOHN K. ALLENDALE.

BROWN'S IRON BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

There is no place that can take the conceit out of a man, simultaneously with cleaning out his pockets, quicker than Wall Street. The legend of the dabbler who found out what he really was is apropos. After he had been through the mill he was asked:

"Were you a bull?" "No."

"Were you a bear?" "No."

"What in thunder were you, then?"

"My friend, I was an ass, that's what I was, an ass."

And that's the conclusion they nearly all come to at last.

PUTTING it in very plain English, says the Charleston, S. C., News, what the Southern Democracy need and desire is such recognition of the equality of the states and their citizens as are to be found in legislation which looks to the equal benefit of the whole country, in executive conduct which makes no geographical distinctions, and in a judiciary who will attempt to exercise no powers in the South that they would not exercise in the North.

The Southern people, outside of politics—the people who, at last, determine the success or failure of parties—do not care a fig for public offices, and look with contempt, mingled with disgust, upon the everlasting chatter about candidates and places. There is not a Southern Democrat living who can at this time increase the strength of the Democratic party in the South by being the nominee for vice president.

The Democratic candidates are voted for solidly in the South because the white people believe that their material interests as well as their political convictions require it. Whenever they shall cease to hold this opinion it will be futile to expect to consolidate them by giving one of their number a nomination on the national ticket.

As long as their interests and convictions do tie them to the Democracy the bait of a nomination is superfluous and unnecessary.

There is no place that can take the conceit out of a man, simultaneously with cleaning out his pockets, quicker than Wall Street. The legend of the dabbler who found out what he really was is apropos. After he had been through the mill he was asked:

"Were you a bull?" "No."

"Were you a bear?" "No."

"What in thunder were you, then?"

"My friend, I was an ass, that's what I was, an ass."

And that's the conclusion they nearly all come to at last.
