

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1883.

More than two million visitors have attended the international fisheries exhibit in London.

A TREE recently cut in Clark county, Ky., made 500 flat rails, 30 fence posts and four cords of wood.

The new two-cent postage stamp is a good test of color-blindness. A Mississippi editor announces that it is of a pale purple shade.

JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL, United States minister, will be nominated as a candidate for the rectorship of the Scotch University, St. Andrews.

MIDHAT PASHA, sentenced to exile for complicity in the assassination of the Sultan Abdul Aziz in May, 1881, is reported to have been released.

TEXAS organized sixty-eight new counties last year, making 200 in the state. The increase of her taxable property in the year was $130,000,000.

THE DAILY ASTORIAN, fifteen cents a week. "The cat will mew, the dog will have his bay," is Irving's correct method of rendering the passage in Hamlet usually given "the dog will have his day."

Each curl on the head of the statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World," destined for New York harbor, is three times bigger than a man's body.

BRIGANDAGE in Sicily is not looked upon with so much favor as formerly, twelve outlaws having just been sentenced to death and others to the galleys.

"BILLY," said old Commodore Vanderbilt to his son William, years ago, "the men who take their seven per cent. interest will have all the money in time." It looks very much that way.

The grand jury of Onondaga county, New York, has indicted all newsdealers who sell the Police News, Police Gazette and Week's Doings, classing them as obscene prints.

REGARDING the unusual number of Chinese "traders" that have been arriving at San Francisco, custom house officers state that the Chinese superintendent of customs at Canton is doing a good business furnishing "traders" certificates at from $2.50 to $5 each.

THE Nihilists demand that the Czar summon the representatives of the Russian people, and ask for a full amnesty, freedom of the press, freedom of speech and the right to hold public meetings as the only means of preventing a revolution.

THE Inter-Ocean says: "No better argument in favor of Republican rule could be given than the fact that the secretary of the treasury is preparing to issue two per cent bonds. American credit to-day is better than that of any nation on the globe. Does anybody believe that the Democratic party will make it better?"

This is a progressive age, especially in Astoria; we have more railroads, increased steamship facilities; gas light; water works; THE DAILY ASTORIAN sells for 15 cents a week; fine buildings are going up on every hand; new streets are being opened and old ones improved, and all honest, industrious people are at work.

THIRTY-FIVE thousand dollars has been raised by the three Lee monument associations in the south. As soon as the political campaign is ended steps will be taken to erect the monument in Richmond to General Lee. It is proposed to lay the corner-stone in October of next year. Ex-Confederate soldiers from every section of the south will be present.

THE claim of the United States against the Central Pacific Railway Company, which has been pending for some time in the courts of California, for a large amount of internal revenue taxes, has been compromised. The terms are that the railway company shall pay to the government $69,000 and costs of the pending suit, and relinquish its claim against the government for $26,818 on account of interest alleged to have been unlawfully paid Jan. 1, 1872.
