died in London last week after a short illness, aged 65 years. Reid was born in the north of Ireland in 1818. He was the son of a Presbyterian minister, and was educated for the church, but set out in 1838 for America. Arriving at New Orleans he engaged in trading and hunting excursions up the Red and Missouri rivers, and traveled through nearly every state in the Union. Subsequently he settled in Philadelphia, joined the army in the Mexican war and was wounded in the assault upon Chapultepee. In 1849 he set out to fight for the Hungarians during their struggle with Austria, but
