

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1883

SHOULD NEW YORK GO Democratic next Tuesday, Democratic presidential candidates will be abundant.

ACCORDING to the government reports the currency is increasing, but the majority of the people are unable to see it.

VANDERBILT is worth about 4,000 times his own weight in gold or about 50,000 times his own weight in silver.

FOUR years ago an Indianapolis man lost a dog, and he is still running a three-line advertisement offering $2 reward.

ALTHOUGH a kiss is one of the most ephemeral things in the world, a Pennsylvania jury recently decided that it was worth one cent.

ON what it pronounces the "best authority," a Boston paper says that Mr. Villard's combined salaries as president of various corporations, amount to $28,000 per annum.

A NEW YORK dispatch of the 1st, says Northern Pacific sold up to 2 1/4 for common, and 6 1/4 for preferred, on the announcement that the government had ordered transportation of the Oregon and British Columbia mails over the Northern Pacific line. This, it is stated, would add over $500,000 to the receipts of the company annually.

IX thirty days Congress meets. Nothing is known in regard to any recommendations of the president's message. He is but just receiving the principal points of the reports of the heads of departments. As to the report that he will recommend a total abolition of internal taxes, it is not credited. There is a general impression that he may go as far as he did in his message of last December, in which he advised the repeal of all this class of taxes, except those on distilled spirits.

HERMAN HAUPT, general manager of the Northern Pacific railroad, has tendered his resignation, which has been accepted, to take effect November 1st. He says his resignation was entirely due to the policy of radical retrenchment adopted by the Northern Pacific, which practically tied his hands and prevented the proper running of the road. At a meeting of the stockholders they had decided to cut off all possible expenses, and he had received instructions to cut down the force actually below the necessary numbers. The directors complained that the expenditures were too much in excess of the receipts. He explained this by stating that the road was turned over to the operating department in a very incomplete condition. In fact, as the parallel rails were laid, so bad was the condition of the road that, though trains could be run over it, they could not be run with any degree of safety or speed.
