Temperance

Is not signing a pledger taking a solemn oath that cannot be kept, because of the non-removal of the caus -liquor. The way to main a man temperate is to kill the desire for those dreads. artificial stimulants that carry so many bright intellect to premature graves, and desolation, strife and unhappiness into so many families.

> NEAT, CHEAP AND QUICK, BY GEORGE LOVETT. Main Street, opposite N. Loeb's.

The following is said to have oc-curred not a thousand miles from

Canyon city:

"Prisoner, stand up and receive your sentence, The sound of trampling feet was immediately hushed. Men stood still in awe. The prisoner had violated the laws of the sovereign state of Oregon; had been tried by a jury of his peers and found guilty; he is now about to receive the sentence whose fullfillment will vindi-cate the majesty of the law, So coung and so fair! "Prisoner," and the silence became even more profound, "prisoner, you have been convicted of an atrocious crime. You have stolen a pair of boots! It is now incumbent upon me to pronounce sentence upon you in proportion to the enormity of your offense. Had you deliberately taken the life of your fellow man, a jury of your peers would doubtless have found you innocent of all crime; but you have stolen a pair of boots, and the majesty of the law must be upheld. I therefore sentence you to hard labor in the penitentiary of this state for a period of two years." Grant News.

School Teachers in the Civil Service.

Under the civil service examination it may prove that the school teachers will carry off the government ap-pointments. There are two reasons for this. The poor compensation given school teachers drives them to seek other employment Their lack of business training will drive them into occupations in which capital is not required, and in which they escape great responsibility. Their familiarity with subjects touch ed on in the civil service examina-tions and their dexterity in solving mathematical problems will enable them to pass better examinations than other competitors. Altogether, it looks as if the school teacher would turn toward Washington for a home in his old age. Philadelphia

Rev Mr. Beecher says "there is no other man in the world like General Butler, and when he was cast, the model was either lost or destroyed." Well, what are you going to do about it? Wouldn't the proper thing be to petition the president to issue a proc lamation naming a week of thanks giving and praise?

Professor Liebig has demonstrated chemically that outment is nearly as antritious as the best beef, and that in bone and muscle-forming qualities it is richer then wheaten bread.
