Around the City.

There is no lack of moisture, now. 'Tis a wise "boss" that knows his own candidate. The Queen arrived in yesterday morning with a light list.

THE KLASKANINE HOMICIDE.

Testimony Taken Yesterday Before the Coroner's Jury.

The Preliminary Examination to be Conducted To-day. Sheriff Trowbridge and Coroner Franklin returned on Sunday morning from the scene of the homicide on the Klaskanine the morning previous. They brought the body of the dead man, Jack Leonard, and two of the Leashy brothers.

A SUGGESTIVE STORY.

FROM MONTREAL TO SOUTH CAROLINA.

Some Notes of an Extended Journey. Of the 288 Oregon and Washington residents who went eastward this fall over the newly completed Northern Pacific railroad.

THE GARDENERS.

I, Wm. J. Harold, do depose and say that on Saturday morning, about 8 o'clock, we started from Mr. Corno's house, four of us, with the intent of building a house; we went up across a trail and down into a clearing.

THE WHITE TRASH.

I, H. W. Mack, being first duly sworn, do depose and say that on Friday morning I went up to the place with Mr. Leonard and these other two witnesses; while we were to work we took down part of a house that was standing there.

FOREIGN SALMON MARKET.

The spot market for salmon remains firm, but there is not much stir at present. A fair business is being done at prices varying from 21s to 23s c. i. l.

ABOUT THE SIZE OF IT.

There is a class of people who patronize every "cheap John" that comes along, paying him the cash for goods that he says are cheap.
