

The Daily Astorian. ASTORIA, OREGON: TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1883. MORMON WOMEN.

One of the greatest obstacles to woman suffrage is the indifference of women to the wrongs they are alleged to suffer because they are deprived of it, and the greatest obstruction to the punishment and abolition of polygamy is the support which the institution receives from the women whom it is alleged to degrade.

CHINESE EQUIPMENT. A CHICAGO man, recently from China, says: "China is far better equipped to go to war than Europe or Americans generally think."

THE MONUMENT MANIA. THERE is more or less sentimental nonsense floating about regarding monuments to Washington and other great men, and it has very little substance.

These monuments were the archives of the nation, the record of the reigns. The monument of the present day is a rudimentary relic of the obelisk and the column, the pyramid and the bass-relief.
