The grapplers were busy all the after-moon yesterday trying to find the body of the man that fell off of Flavel's dock friday morning, but up to last evening was unsuccessful. He was a soldier from the fort who tried to go aboard the Brenham and fell from the ladder. He never rose after striking the water, and though assistance was attempted the darkness of the night precluded any possibility of rescue.

The success attending the social club organized in Astoria last winter has suggested the propriety of reorganizing a similar enterprise for the winter of 1883-4. Up to yesterday afternoon fifty-two names had been subscribed. The idea is to assess the the receiptors of feet or the properties of the season that the is to assess the the members $5 for expenses, each member having the privilege of bringing one or more lady friends to the entertainments that will from time to time be given under the auspices of the assessition.

PAPER MILL,-The Clackamas paper mill employs fifteen hands and manufactures one ton of printing paper daily. Because water power cannot be obtained because water power cannot be obtained there the mill will be moved in the spring to La Camas, W. T. There it is the intention to enlarge facilities so as to be able to make eight tons of printing paper daily, and a correspondingly larger number of hands will be employed.

New Idea.-One of the most interest ing medical theories vet broached is the hypothesis that searlet fever originated hypothesis that searlet fever originated with the horse, and that inoculation with this animal may possibly be used as a preventive of the dreaded disease in the human being. Dr. John C. Peters, of New York City, who has prosecuted careful studies into this subject, is thoroughly convinced that he is right in the hypothesis, and he believes that it will be possible to reduce the equine virus by cultivation, so that healthy children may be inoculated against the disease. be inoculated against the di

As it is not right to allow the vigilance committee to bear all the barden neither is it right to allow them to have all the is it right to allow them to have all the honor. Hundreds of citizens like myself who were not of the committee would willingly be of it if they were asked. True, $1,000 is a mere trifle, but though small, as it right to allow a few to pay it? It is said that when the owners of the cotton bales that defended New Orleans got a judgment in the courts against Gen. Jackson, in a few hours afterward the citizens clubbed together and paid the fine. And are not those brave men who have been fined for defending us, worthy of like consideration? There is one at of like consideration? There is one at least who thinks so, and who, if a meet-ing of citizens is called for the purpose of showing such consideration and re-
