Election Notes. Losers of bets paid over cheerfully yesterday. About $2,000 changed hands on the result.

An Astoria Sunset.—The sun that sank behind the hill last evening went down in a crimson blaze whose glowing flame was as brilliant as though ten thousand ocean lamps were burning.

Dividing the Property.—The sheriff's jury in the Bachman furniture case, met yesterday, and the testimony already published was gone over again before them.

SEVERELY BEATEN.—Capt. Phil Johnson, who brought down the Ischegreen yesterday morning, is in a badly bruised condition.

LA. TIMES.—Yesterday's Standard has an alleged telegram from Astoria, in which, speaking of Wednesday's election, it says, "Politically, the candidates elected were Democrats, but politics did not enter into the contest."

REBATE ON TOBACCO.—According to the provisions of the law of Congress reducing the tax on manufactured tobacco, which went into effect last May, dealers were allowed a rebate on the stock on hand at that date, provided they made application in due form.

THE WEAKER SEX are amply strengthened by the use of Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription," which cures all female derangements, and gives tone to the system.
