They Broke the Jugs.

Despite the stormy evening the pleasant little M. E. church was comfortably filled last evening, the occasion being a unique entertainment known as "breaking the jugs."

The First N. P. R. President.

Joseph Perham, the first president of the Northern Pacific Railroad company, was a man of great energy, integrity and singleness of purpose. He was an enthusiastic, but at the same time a practical man of business, and he had the rare faculty of communicating his enthusiasm to others.

Another View of It.

Flower in a condensed telegram is given Villard's version of his reasons for resigning. Perhaps the following from a recent New York Sun may not at this juncture prove wholly uninteresting.
