Around the City.

How are you Mr. George!

He that is not for us is against us.

Mrs. Bergman, who has been severely ill, is much better.

The State arrived in yesterday; the Oregon sails to-day.

Wilson & Fisher have copper paint for sale in half gallon tins.

E. Dexter, of Dexter & Sperry, Oysterville, is registered at the Occident.

Carl Adler has an enormous stock of valentines, fresh and fancy; call and see them.

Cushing Post No. 14, G. A. R., will give a social party on the evening of February 6th.

The sunset glow on the western sky yestre'en has never been excelled in scenic splendor.

There was no session of the circuit court yesterday. It meets again at nine o'clock this morning.

At a recent meeting of the Point Adams Packing Co., John Boye was elected president, and W. T. Chutter secretary.

The Sarah Bell cleared yesterday with 14,666 bbls flour for Queenstown, worth $39,662. The Bonita went to sea yesterday.

Passengers on the river boats report ice floating as far south as St. Helens. Two days more of such weather as this will block navigation on the upper Columbia.

There will be a special sale of first-class millinery goods at E. C. Holden's to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Some fine goods are displayed. Seats will be provided for bidders.

Put it down in your memorandum that on the 21st of January, 1884, in the congress of the United States, Oregon's representative voted against giving back to the people the grants that the railroads had forfeited.

Large numbers of laborers are leaving Portland for San Francisco. Work is scarce and pay in some instances uncertain. In a few weeks time there will be a stream of men taking passage at San Francisco for Astoria, but just at present it is scant picking.

Beginning on Thursday, the 31st inst., our theater goers will have an opportunity to see the charming actress, Miss Katie Putnam, who, with her excellent comedy company, will, on that evening appear at Occidental hall in the popular four-act comedy entitled "Lena, the Madcap."

A young man, about 24 years of age, named McDonald, a deck hand on the steamer Argo, was drowned in the Chehalis river last Sunday, between Cosmopolis and Hoquiam. It seems the steamer was towing a small skiff, and it being about half full of water he went into it for the purpose of bailing it out, when it swamped, drowning him. No person saw the accident, nor could his body be found.

SALMON RATES.—Columbia river fish, $1.20@1.22½ f. o. b. on the river; spot, $1.20@1.22½ for export; $1.22½@1.25 ℔ doz., 1-lb tins, for domestic shipment. Outside rivers, $1.05@1.10 ℔ doz., 1-lb tins. Jobbing rates for salt salmon are —bbls, $8.50@8.75, as to quality; half bbls, $4.50@5.00.—S. F. Comm. News.

DIVIDENDS.—John Hume, who died at Astoria on Friday last, held a $5000 policy in the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company. On the same day John Stahl died at Walla Walla holding a $2000 policy in the same company. The day before the company sent $2,500 to Canyon City to pay a policy there.—Oregonian, 22.

INCREASED MAIL SERVICE.—The post office department informs Postmaster Gale that the contractor on route No. 43,123, from Olympia to Astoria, has been instructed to increase the service to six times a week between Olympia and Montesano. The service will begin on the first of February. The mail will close here at nine o'clock in the evening, and depart at four o'clock in the morning. This service has been much needed, and will be received with rejoicing by the people of Chehalis valley. Postmaster Gale and contractor Loomis were instrumental in getting this service established. The mail service between Montesano and Astoria has also been increased from two to three times a week.—Transcript.

CHANGES OF TITLES.—Another change is shortly to be made in the titles of the officers of the operating and traffic departments of the Northern Pacific railroad. The present titles have always been obnoxious, not only to the Northern Pacific people, but to every one else who has business relations with the company, and is obliged to cover the face of an envelope with one man's titles. The late reconstruction was made by order of Mr. Villard, and during his presidency it, of course, continued. Now that he has resigned, the change is expected to shortly follow. According to the new arrangement, Assistant General Manager Oden is to be made superintendent of transportation, and have his jurisdiction extended over the whole line. Superintendent of Traffic Muir is to be general traffic manager; Assistant Superintendent of Traffic Stokes is to be general freight agent for the west end, and Assistant Superintendent of Freight Traffic Hannaford is to be general agent of the eastern division. What the reconstruction in the passenger department will be is not quite clear.

THE BEARS STILL ON THE ONSLAUGHT.

(SPECIAL TO THE ASTORIAN.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—The bears seem to have it all their own way in Wall street to-day. Every stock suffered a little, more or less, but a most determined attack on the Oregon stocks resulted in forcing Oregon and Transcontinental down to 21½, Oregon Railway and Navigation Co.'s stock went to 88.

Nutt Acquitted.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 22.—In the case of young Nutt, charged with the murder of Dukes, the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty," at 10 o'clock this morning. The verdict was received with wild applause by the large crowd of spectators that had assembled.

Fat Billets.

The Welcome has been investigating the receipts of some of Portland's special police. According to its statements some of them ought to be able to lay aside a little for a rainy day." It says that the following amounts per month are paid to J. F. Watson, whose beat extends from Front to Fourth streets and from Washington to Morrison. Seventeen Chinese tan games, with 62 gambling tables, $4 per week for each house, $272; 14 lottery houses at $2 per week, $120; 126 white business houses at $1.50 each, $188; 8 houses of prostitution at $5 each, $40; 55 Chinese business houses at $1.50 each, $82; 4 faro games, $64; from city of Portland, $1; total per month, $706. Special Officer A. B. Brannan, whose beat is from east of Fifth, north of Oak and south of A streets, received per month: Seven saloons at $2 per month each, $14; 68 white business houses at $1 each, $68; four banks at $2 each, $8; 17 Chinese business houses at $2 each, $34; 4 Chinese bawdy houses at $5 each, $20; 4 Chinese tan games at $10 each, $40; is said to receive from the O. R. & N. Co., $40, Walter Keyes' Yankee Bazaar, $5 per month; from the city of Portland, $1 per month; total per month, $220. Estimated amount received by Special Officer Mott: Beat, east of Fourth from Morrison to Taylor streets; 63 white business houses, $83; 20 Chinese stores at 50 cents each, perweek, $10; 34 bawdy houses, $170; 6 Chinese gambling houses, at $4 per week each, $96; from city of Portland, per month, $1; total per month, $390.

An Oregon Mayor Sold.

A dispatch from Washington giving an indefinite account of swindling acts of a man who pretended to be a priest, has developed the fact that Thomas Charman, mayor of Oregon City and one of the wealthiest men of the town, is one of the victims. About a year ago, Mayor Chapman received a letter from Cuenta, Spain, signed by one Mire, who purported to be a priest. He said he was at the death-bed of a Brigadier named Charman who left an immense estate, which has been confiscated by the Carlists. He asked for a remittance of $900 to send the granddaughter of the dead Brigadier to America, and wanted to know whether he should take preliminary steps to recover the estate. The letter had every appearance of an official document, being bordered with various seals and much red tape. After the exchange of a few letters Charman sent $900 and since then has not heard from the pseudo priest.

—Dinner at "JEFF'S" CHOP HOUSE every day from 4:30 to 8 o'clock. The best 25-cent meal in town: soup, fish, seven kinds of meats, vegetables, pie, pudding, etc. A glass of S. F. Beer, French Claret, tea or coffee included. All who have tried him say Jeff is the "BOSS."

Use Dimmitt's Cough Balsam.

J. M. Yantis, Sweet Springs, Mo., writes: "My mother has had bronchial and pulmonary affection for forty years and in that time has tried almost everything, but never found anything to give her the relief Dimmitt's Cough Balsam has." At W. E. Dement & Co.'s.

WHAT! do you think that JEFF OF THE CHOP HOUSE gives you a meal for nothing and a glass of something to drink? "Not much!" but he gives a better meal and more of it than any place in town for 25 cents. He buys by the wholesale and pays cash. "That settles it."

Use Dimmitt's Cough Balsam.

W. W. Batterton, Columbia, Mo., says: "I cannot say too much for Dimmitt's Cough Balsam, for it always cures my children of croup and myself and family of coughs and colds." At W. E. Dement & Co.'s.

Have Wistar's balsam of wild cherry always at hand. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, whooping cough, croup, influenza, consumption, and all throat and lung complaints. 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING."

But Occasioning Considerable Legal Complication.

Every one remembers the sudden flight a few months ago of a young fellow named Bailey who had embezzled money from C. H. Cooper, his employer. After it was known that he had skipped to San Francisco a requisition was obtained, and Walter Robb went to San Francisco to arrest him. A conflict of jurisdiction arose, which compelled Robb to return on the boat without his prisoner. But the opportunity was too good a one to be lost and the legal big wigs of California have been solemnly considering the case ever since. Technically Robb was under arrest for "contempt of court," in reality he was at his office in this city ever since his return a few days after his departure for San Francisco.

The matter has got so mixed up in the California papers that the impression prevails that the Webfoot Nation was about organizing a legion to go down to San Francisco, effect Robb's rescue from a dark and loathsome dungeon and convey him in triumph to his North Pacific home.

Concerning the matter, the following from the Chronicle of the 20th will be found amusing and instructive:

Judges Sawyer, with Judges Hoffman and Sabin as associates, in the United States Circuit court, rendered a decision and opinion yesterday in the habeas corpus case of W. L. Robb. The circumstances of the case are as follows: Robb is the sheriff of Clatsop county, Or., and came to this state in search of Charles H. Bayley, for whom he held a warrant of arrest for embezzlement. Robb also held an extradition warrant for the arrest of Bayley, issued by Governor Stoneman of this state. Bayley was found by Chief of Police Crowley and turned over to Robb to be taken back to Oregon. Bayley petitioned the superior court of this city for a writ of habeas corpus, which was granted, and Robb was ordered to bring his prisoner into court. This he refused to do, claiming that he was holding Bayley under arrest under the United States laws, and in consequence of his refusal he was himself arrested by Sheriff P. Connolly on an order of the court for contempt of court. Robb then petitioned the United States circuit court for a writ of habeas corpus. His case was argued and submitted several days ago. The opinion of Judge Sawyer embraces sixty-five pages of legal-cap and occupied nearly an hour in the reading. The decision recites the circumstances of the case. All of the United States laws bearing on the case are quoted. The opinion and decision state that Robb did exactly what the supreme court of the United States said he should do under the circumstances. The petitioner was acting under the authority of the United States and no state judge or court, after being officially informed that the prisoner was held under the authority of the United States, has any right to interfere with him or require him to bring his prisoner before them. If any attempt should be made to control a marshal or government agent, or in any manner interfere with him, it is his duty to call to his aid any force that may be necessary to maintain his authority of law against illegal interference.

The decision concludes: "We are of the opinion under the authoritative decision cited that the judge of the superior court, on the petition of Bayley as presented, had no jurisdiction to issue the writ. * * * The petitioner is entitled to be discharged from imprisonment and it is so ordered."

Salmon Notes—Foreign and Domestic.

Latest advices from the Pacific report large purchases of salmon on English account; one agent in particular placing in a single block of 40,000 to 50,000 cases. Stocks in first hands are in consequence stated to be in small compass. The better tone has been reciprocated here; there are several inquiries for arrival, and it is confidently anticipated that after Christmas, buyers, tempted by the low rates now ruling for Columbia river fish, will operate freely. Reliable estimates to date place the total quantity available for shipment to this country at not far short of 100,000 cases less than last year. With the low rates now prevailing it is hoped that a sound basis has been reached that will prevent the dragging and unsatisfactory trade that has of late been the rule. The Ullock, with 30,000 cases for Liverpool, is considerably overdue. She left Astoria on July 6th, and was spoken about a month ago. Ships which sailed subsequently have already arrived, and underwriters ask 10 guineas premium for re-insurance.

The salmon spot market is very steady, although there have been no operations of any magnitude; buyers for the most part are busy taking stock, and until same is finished have no wish to add to their labors by increasing their holdings. Dealers have very light stocks, and a brisk business is expected after the turn of the year. It is reported on the most reliable authority that three well-known San Francisco houses have bought up the whole of the remaining stocks of Columbia river packing. This will be firmly held, and is evidence that bottom has been touched.

The canned goods business in salmon during the past week has been exceedingly small, and no activity is expected until the turn of the year, or perhaps well into January, when grocers will be removing their attractive displays of dried fruits, and placing in their windows the usual assortment of tinned goods, which are less injured by the exposure, more attractive than currants, raisins, etc.—Cor. London Grocer.

The market is firm and higher, owing to scarcity of supply. During the past week 700 cases were purchased for export (forming a portion of a recent shipment to Australia) at $1.25, which is equal to $1.27½ for domestic shipment.

Mr. E. B. Beck, of the firm of D. L. Beck & Sons, of this city, recently returned from a trip to the Columbia river, and reports 6,000 cases as the outside estimate of canned salmon now held on the Columbia. He states that he visited many canneries, and saw no more signs of salmon than he would in a hay barn. He also says that no particular preparations are being made for the coming season. Everyone appears to be waiting and in some doubt as to what they'll do when the run begins. The high price of fish during the past season, and the general disappointment of packers as to the profits realized from the season's work, together with the doubt which assails them as to the conditions which may be attendant upon the industry during the coming season, has a tendency to make even the most venturesome rather conservative. Reports from New York state that 11,000 cases of the salmon cargo of the Hurlbut, now on the way to that port, have been withdrawn from sale. The condition of the salmon market exhibits a rather phenomenal phase, in the respect that prices are now higher in this market than in New York. Outside river salmon, fall packed, is quotable at $1 for export and at $1.05 for domestic shipment.

We learn that Messrs. D. L. Beck & Sons have purchased the entire business of Mr. Geo. W. Hume, including his cannery, fixtures and everything appertaining to the business, inclusive of stock on hand. Mr. Hume's selling out is owing to his enforced retirement from business, in consequence of failing health. Acting on the advice of his physician, it is said Mr. Hume will rest from business entirely, and will engage in travel as a means of recuperating his health. We trust that Mr. Hume's enforced retirement may be but temporary, and that physically renewed we may at some future time see him again engaged in salmon-packing—an industry which he was among the first to foster, and in which no name stands higher. As Mr. Hume retires with probably a modest competence of about half a million, it is pleasant to think that he will not be forced to re-engage in business against his inclination. We trust he will not be obliged to travel far or long before finding that which he is seeking, and, throughout his journeying, with him pleasant days and peaceful nights.—California Grocer and Canner.
