The 400th annivers ry of the birth of Martin Luther will be to-morrow's subject of discourse at the M. E. church.

There will be no service to-night at the Baptist church. Meetings will be resumed to-morrow and continued during the week. The weather yesterday was sort of pinto. Fog and rain had the best of it

Astoria is fast becoming what by right it should be—the headquarters for can-nery supplies of every kind. This sea-son sees an increased progress in that direction.

A Chehalis county jury has decided that to shoot and kill a man is "assault and battery." That's what their verdict was in the case wherein Jack Vincent was convicted of the murder of his son-in-law, West. But the days of surprise concerning the verdict of a jury have gone by.

The leaves of hea finished his new oven. Ed Jackson has finished his new oven and make other improvements in his es-tablishment that warrant him in claiming to make as good bread and cake as any bakery in the state. All kinds of fancy cakes are turned out and fine confectionery is made a specialty. Pork and beans for to-morrow's dinner may be ordered this morning. The tuning of the fiddle, the beating of the pigkin, the rattling of the cymbals and the clanging of the gong are proof that the Mongolian New Year has begun. The neglected wood pile, and the unusual carlessness regarding bringing home the family wash also indicate that our Chi-

The road from Ilwaco we referred to yesterday, said the other meant is the road projected from Olympia to Gray's harbor. Capt. Hill, of this company, informed a reporter yesterday that his company had completed their surveys and have a route selected feasible in every respect. It runs through a country capable of giving it a heavy traffic from the beginning, and which will make it extremely profitable from the day of its completion. The company has selected its terminal points at both ends, and it expects curing the season of 1884 to go to work and build the road. From Gray's harber to Shoalwater bay is only ten mes, and the other company do not heatife to say that they will build across the to say that they will build across the first in one else does. About sixteen months ago the government engineers that were sent out here nese residents are out for a big holiday. The fun begins to-day.

A bull that in some inscrutable way got down on the beach and under the buildings on the east side of Main street below Chenamus made sad complaint all day yesterday. All efforts to remove him were ineffectual so tightly was the bowine wedged in, and how to get him out without making beef of him is a problem for Clark Loughrey to solve to-day.

The Canadian parliament will be asked on Monday to vote $750,000 to aid the construction of a railway from Esquimatt to Nanaimo, and a further sum of $250,000 for the purchase from the province of the dry dock of Esquimalt, and such additional sums as have been expended in construction since June, 1882, that the suit was brought. The question of damages was referred to W. B. Gilbert for adjudication. struction of the railroad will begin once after the arrangements are ratified by parliament.

Selecting Jurymen.

"In getting our jurymen, we lawyers frequently make terrible mistakes-terrible mistakes," said a well-known legal defender of criminals as he sat in the court-room and watched the selecting of t relve good men to try a prisoner. "We study the faces of jorymen all our lives, he continued, "and still we blunder when ever called on to fill a jury box."

"What are the general rules that law yers go by in selecting jurymen?" asked the person to whom the attorney had

'There are no safe general rules," was the reply. "Lawyers try to establish such rules, but always find them misleading. All lawyers concede, however, that an Clark Loughrey to solve to-day.

The Gen. Banning sails for Gray's harbor with freight and passengers to-day. This is a service that would not exist but for the enterprise of Capt. Gray and his asso-ciates, and it should need no urging for Astorians to patronize something that tends to help them. Be it little or much whatever can be done to make the Banning a success, should be done.

Now that it has been demonstrated as an actual fact that money can be raised for public purposes in Astoria, wouldn't it be a good idea before things get cold to make a move toward building the road to Clatsop. At the present writing nothing occurs to the average mind of greater resulting benefit to the city than would inure from the completion of that necessary thoroughfare.
