THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION

A Republican convention for the state of Oregon is called to meet at the city of Portland. Oregon, on Wednesday, the 30th day of April, 1884, at 11 o'clock a. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the following offices, to-wit: Representative in congress, judge of the supreme court, the presidential electors, and district officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to attend the national Republican convention, and to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The convention will consist of 206 dele gates, apportioned among the several unties, as follows: 6 Marion 6 Polk ..... 5 Tillamook 2 Umatilla.... 12 Union ..... Curry ..... Douglas .... 6 Washington .... 3 Yambill .....

The same being one delegate at large from each county, and one delegate for every 125 votes, and one for every fraction over one-half thereof, cast for Hon. M. C. George, congressman, at the last general election.

general election.

The committee recommend that the primaries be held on Saturday, the 12th of April, and the county conventions on Tuesday, the 22d day of April, unless otherwise ordered by the proper county central committees.

The committee earnestly recommend that the delegates elected to the state convention attend in person, and if not convenient for them to so attend personally, that they send their proxies by electors of the county they represent.

The Republican voters of the state, without regard to past political differences, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human popular education to the masses of the people, effectually proteoting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the state by maintaining a government pledged to these objects and privileges, are cordially invited to unite in selecting delegates to the Re-

The half In-dian had been educated at an eastern school, and was a very intelligent man. He was, I understood him to say, a member of the Cherokee council, and was returning home from a visit to Washington, to attend a ses of that grave, if not potent, body of Indian legislators. When the boy learned that the man was an Indian, he began to exhibit a restlessness which I soon discovered would result in the red man's annoyance.
"Did you ever kill anybody?" asked

"Yes, they would."
"Would you care?"

"Maw"

"Yes." "Then what makes you wanter put me out? Do the Indians scalp felks?" again addressing the Cherokee councilor, who exhibited the stoical side of his Indian nature; but then, yield ing to the white, and, of course, the polished half, replied:

"The wild ones do." "But you are not wild, are you?"

"Why ain't you?" "My little man, I must say that you are asking too many questions," cast-ing a reproachful glance at the

"Why wouldn't you?" "Another word out of you and I'll whip you. Never mind; I'll tell your father," said the woman.

It was impossible for him to keep quiet, and after awhile he asked: "Have you got any boys?" "Are they Indian boys?" "Their mother is a white woman."

"As white as my maw?" "Just another word out of you and I'll box you," said the woman, blush-

He had evidently tested his indulgent mother on many an occasion, for, after the shortest possible silence on his part, he asked: "Did you ever see any scalps?"
"Yes, I think so."

"Did they have blood on 'em?" "No, they were dry," replied the Cherokee, plainly showing that his polite readiness to answer the questions had risen above his Indian sto-
