THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The state Democratic convention is hereby called to meet at Dalles City, on Thursday, the 17th of April next, at 10 o'clock a. M., for the purpose of nominat-ing candidates for the following offices: Indge of the supreme court, three presi-dential electors, representative in the lower house of congress and district officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to the national house the several product of the several house of the several pro-Democratic convention, and generally to to do such other busines as may of right before such convention. The committee deem it fitting to present to the Democratic voters of the state the following considerations: We see approaching an election of most vital import to our commonwealth in all its interests, both public and pri-

Deeming honesty the best policy, and in striking contrast with the course of the opposition party, we have named an early day for the assembling of the state early day for the assembling of the state convention. Our principles as a party will then be enunciated, and our candi-dates placed in the field subject to the approval or consideration of the body politic. The variance in the vote of this state during the root faw wars and convoidiby during the past few years, and especially the very close contest in the presidential election of 1880, gives us much hope that, notwithstanding our present minority, with harmony in our ranks, and a well-directed exertion of our strength, we shall carry off the palm of victory. But to insure this end it is imperative that all Democrats should contribute their undi-vided support and hearty co-operation. vided support and hearty co-operation, not only in the actual canvass but in its very initiation—the county primaries. We do not presume to trespass upon the excincts of our normality convention, but precincts of our popular convention, but do earnestly invoke all members of our party to put aside past differences and personal antagonisms, to unite in har-monious action in the various primaries and to send fall delegations of represen-tative men to attend the state convention. We have deemed it fitting to make the We have deemed it fitting to reduce the number of delegates, in the hope of secur-ing the personal attendance of those to be chosen. #### THE SEA SERPENT.

NEW YORK, March 1.- The Star Says: It was reported at Staten Is-land yesterday that Constable Elbert L. Poillon had been attacked by a sca serpent. John Fisher, an oyster planter, corroborates the story. His son and Fisher were standing on the beach of Lower bay on Thursday afternoon when they saw what they took to be a large log floating with the tide from Quarantine island. Fisher took a boat and started to see what the thing was. Poillon and the boy noticed Fisher hastily pulling Hundreds of letters in our possession (cop-pies of which may be hod by return mail. It was moving at a good pace through the water. The parties shipped their oars in a noisy manner and were frightened to see the object of their pursuit rise from the water. It had a long black and thick neck, and a head as large as a powder keg. Before the fishermen had a chance to look at the dimensions of its body the monster raised one of its claws, about ten feet long and grasping an oar, placed it in its massive jaws and crunched it into pieces. The frightened fishermen pulled as fast as they knew how, and, when they reached the shore, did not stop running until they reached Ettingville. Fisher and Poillon, when chided by the neighbors with inventing the above the methods.
