

The Daily Astorian.

ASTORIA, OREGON: WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1884

THE STAR OF EMPIRE.

SHALL we receive her? We mean Manitoba. Away in that far north-western section of her majesty's dominions there is serious talk of hauling down the banner of St. George and erecting in its place the Stars and Stripes.

AS USUAL.

If the ocean trade was all there was to depend on there might be an advantage in Sound commerce but ships coming from England or any Southern ports, or the Isthmus canal, can take a tug off the Columbia and a tow at Astoria and reach Portland as soon as they would the Straits of Fuca.

NEW TO-DAY.

Notice To The Public. THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE THAT THE partnership existing between the Portland and Astoria Stevedore company has not been dissolved, any statement to the contrary notwithstanding.

SCENE-BABYLON.

THE Republicans in the house of representatives bitterly fought the bill granting pensions to the heroes of the Mexican war who are not now on the treasury rolls, and in addition to the veterans of the Creek, Seminole and Black Hawk wars. This was a very great mistake. We are told that according to a careful estimate the bill if it should become a law will take more than one hundred million dollars out of the treasury; but what of it? Has not the government a great deal more money than it has need for? Are we not becoming richer and richer every day? The pension roll now is if anything too small. It should contain the name of every man and woman in the country. Let us all have a good-sized pension from the government. The party which adopts this as a plank in its platform will be certain to win.

WOMAN'S PHYSICIAN

AND LADIES' PRIVATE COMPANION FOR HOME TREATMENT.

COMMON SENSE MEDICAL INSTRUCTOR FOR LADIES ONLY: Containing full information in reference to all questions relating to Womanhood, the better to enable the sex to fulfill their duties and enjoy themselves in their various relations as Maidens, Wives and Mothers. It is, as a popular work, commending itself to the great heart of Womanhood; written in plain, easy and delicate language, easy of understanding and above all other recommendations, it is thoroughly reliable and right to the point.

It is a work which fills a place occupied by no other book, and is a complete library in itself. No lady however sensitive, will ever regret its perusal. It gives information which will make life more pleasant, give a higher zest to its enjoyment, make those by whom home life is prized, prize and enjoy them still more, while it will certainly relieve many irksome burdens now borne by those to whom life has proved almost, if not quite, a failure. It gives the causes, symptoms and treatment with prescriptions for every disease peculiar to the sphere for which it is designed. To those who have unintentionally, by ignorance, or by reckless disregard of the divine laws of health, made themselves, wretched in life by sickness, resulting from any of the various forms of weaknesses, which follow the train of womanhood, we can unhesitatingly and most confidently recommend this book as one which will give you the advice your necessities require in order to restore you to health and happiness. The wasted form, the pale, wan cheek, the listless sunken eyes, the slowly dragging step, the "lived nature" is too often seen in our homes. The authors of this work sincerely believe that all these features may be changed, the form again rounded and plump, the cheeks bloom with roses of health, the eye to sparkle with life and vivacity, the light, quick step regained, and the enervated nature restored, by a simple home treatment and prescriptions as laid down in this work, and in this belief, and with an earnest desire to benefit the suffering, and renew health and happiness to the afflicted, and to furnish such information to those now in health, as will enable them to retain it and avoid these difficulties, this book has been prepared. Extra copies should obtain a copy and treat themselves, and no lady in health can afford to be without it and thus remain in ignorance of its peculiar, extraordinary and interesting teaching. It is recommended by many eminent lady physicians as a SAFE GUIDE FOR THE SEX. It is handsomely bound and illustrated. Sent post paid to ladies only, upon receipt of $1.00. Address the
