The committee earnestly recommend that the delegates elected to the state that the delegates elected to the state convention attend in person, and if not convenient for them to so attend person-ally, that they send their proxies by electors of the county they represent. The Republican voters of the state, without regard to past political differ-ences, who are in favor of elevating and dignifying American labor, giving free popular education to the masses of the people, effectually protecting all human people, effectually protecting all human rights in every section of our common country, and who desire to promote friendly feeling and permanent harmony throughout the state by maintaining a government pledged to these objects and privileges, are cordially invited to unite in selecting delegates to the Republican state convention. SOL. HIRSCH, Chairman. Portland, Oregon, Feb. 21, 1884.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION

The state Democratic convention is hereby called to meet at Dalles City, on Thursday, the 17th of April next, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominat-ing candidates for the following offices: Judge of the supreme court, three presidential electors, representative in the lower house of congress and district officers for the several judicial districts, and to select six delegates to the national Democratic convention, and generally to SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. to do such other busines as may of right come before such convention.

The committee deem it fitting to pre-

the following considerations:

We see approaching an election of most vital import to our commonwealth in all its interests, both public and pri-

Deeming honesty the best policy, and in striking contrast with the course of the opposition party, we have named an early day for the assembling of the state convention. Our principles as a party will then be enunciated, and our candidates placed in the field subject to the approval or consideration of the body politic.

The variance in the vote of this state The variance in the vote of this state during the past few years, and especially the very close contest in the presedential election of 1880, gives us much hope that, notwithstanding our present minority, with harmony in our ranks, and a well-directed exertion of our strength, we shall carry off the palm of victory. But to insure this end it is imperative that all Democrats should contribute their undirected exertion.

Needed Seventeen Languages

It was at a dinner, mainly of rail road men, recently, where everybody was called on for a speech. Mr. Simon Stevens, late president of the Tehauntepec Railway and Canal company, responded humorously, apropos of a legal yarn that had just been related, told the following as a true vania thirty odd years ago I knew James Buchanan pretty well. It was years before he was president; he was merely a prominent lawyer wao pract.c.d in the courts of the county. One day he asked three or four of his rich chants home with him to dinner. among them Henry Musselman, a thriving German farmer from the next town. Judge Hopkins, I think, was at the table that day, too. It was a handsome table; the fine damask table-cloth resched nearly to the floor. They had all been helped to turkey, sweet potatoes, cranberry sauce, and the trimmings, and were preparing to assault the repast when Musselman, who had set his plate very close to the edge of the table, upset it, hot gravy and all, into his lap. He sprang up in morti-fication and anguish and made for the door, mopping his hot face with his gravy-soaked napkin and ejaculating in broken fashion. In another instant there was a general start of dismay around the table, as if they felt the foundations of the earth giving away. For Musselman, who came in town on horseback, had accidently hooked his spur firmly into the tablecloth as he turned, and as he rushed out of the door he dragged the whole dinner to the ff or with a jerk! When Buch anan had another cinner cooked and Musselman tried to apologize he said he wished he understood seventeen languages.

Modern Warfare. The recent victory of the British forces under General Graham over Osman Digma has the appearance of a slaughter. The British stood off and mowed the natives down with long-range guns. The few casualties reported are rather in the result of accident than of well directed pur-pose. The bulk of Osman Digma's troops were armed with spears. The battle may be compared to a duel between two men, one armed with a dirk-knife and the other with a pistol, the latter to choose the distance. No possible skill in the use of the knife would avail against the pistol at the usual range. This is
